SC EXTENDS INTERIM PROTECTION TO TEESTA UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS

A bench of Justices B R Gavai, A S Bopanna and Dipankar Datta issued notice to Gujarat govt and posted the matter for final hearing on July 19. Additional Solicitor General S V Raju, who appeared for the Gujarat govt, told the court they need time to translate some documents. The bench agreed. "Issue notice returnable on July 19, 2023. Whatever documents parties want to place on record shall be filed prior to July 15 after exchanging with each other. Interim order to continue until further orders," the bench said.

UGC NOTIFICATION

No need for PhD to become asst professor

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE UGC said on Wednesday that there is no need to have a PhD to become an Assistant Professor. Taking to Twitter, UGC Chairman Prof M Jagadesh Kumar said the PhD requirement has been made optional with effect from July 1.

From now on, the National Eligibility Test (NET), State Eligibility Test (SET) and State Level Eligibility Test (SLET) will be the minimum criteria for direct recruitment to the post of Assistant Professor.

The UGC gazette notification dated June 30 said these regulations may now be called the 'University Grants Commission (Minimum Qualifications for Appointment of Teachers and other Academic Staff in Universities and Colleges and other Measures for the Maintenance of Standards in Higher Education) (2nd Amendment) Regulations, 2023.'

The notification said amendments have been made to the 'University Grants Commission (Minimum Qualifications for Appointment of Teachers and other Academic Staff in Universities and Colleges and other Measures for the Maintenance of Standards in Higher Education) Regulations, 2018.'

Meanwhile, officials said the final results of UGC-NET exams will be out next month. The test determines the eligibility to be appointed as assistant professor and Junior Research Fellows in colleges.

At 32, Ajit has better numbers

16 MLAs attend meet called by Sharad Pawar

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

REBEL NCP leader and DyCM Ajit Pawar wasn't bluffing when he claimed the bulk of party's legislators were on his side, as a meeting he convened on Wednesday was attended by 32 of the 53 party MLAs.

In comparison, a parallel meeting held by party chief Sharad Pawar drew just 16 MLAs. The remaining five MLAs were neutral. While Ajit addressed the meeting with all prominent leaders alongside, Sharad Pawar's gathering had new and young faces. The mood in the Pawar senior camp was nervous, while the rival camp appeared confident.

After days of playing lip service to Sharad Pawar, the gloves were finally off as nephew Ajit asked him to retire from active politics gracefully and hand over the reins to him. "Even government officials retire at a certain age, but uncle Sharad Pawar wants to remain at the helm of the party forever. Why?" he wondered.

Sources said Ajit aims to get 45 MLAs by his side. "In the meeting, 32 MLAs came out publicly in support of Ajit Pawar. There are other fence-sitters who will decide at the 11th hour. A few other MLAs who attended the meeting called by Sharad Pawar are likely to switch sides when Ajit gets elevated as CM. Once the Ajit camp has the numbers, it can claim the right over the party, including its name, flag and election symbol," sources said.

Ajit's revolt is better managed this time because most of senior leaders, who were close aides of Sharad Pawar, are now in his camp. His previous rebellion was easily broken by his uncle as Ajit hadn't done enough spadework, sources added.

To avoid poaching, Ajit has decided to lodge MLAs in his camp at a luxury hotel in Mumbai. "Ajit has been promised by the BJP leadership that he will get the CM's post if he can muster the numbers. Once the legal process is over, the MLAs will be sent home," sources added.

TIME TO GRACEFULLY RETIRE, SAYS AJIT

"You are 83, aren't you going to stop? Everybody has his innings. The most productive years are from 25 to 75. Give us your blessings and we will pray that you live a long life... 'For us, Saheb (Sharad Pawar) is a deity and we have deep respect for him. IAS officers retire at 60. Even in politics, BJP leaders retire at 75," Ajit said

Govt to order judicial probe into 40% commission row

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

THE Congress government has decided to order a judicial inquiry into the 40% commission allegation made by the Karnataka Contractors' Association against the previous BJP government.

It is also likely to probe the alleged scams that took place in the Irrigation Department during the pandemic.

The probe panel will be headed by a retired judge.

"Chief Minister Siddaramaiah held a high-level meeting with Chief Secretary Vandita Sharma and Additional Chief Secretary Rajneesh Goyal four days ago on the matter. All procedures have been followed and some retired judges' names have been suggested to head the panel. A decision was taken on Tuesday and an order will be issued soon," sources in the CMO informed TNIE.

Meanwhile, former chief minister Basavaraj Bommai welcomed the government's decision and expressed the hope that the probe will bring out the truth. He demanded that the government investigate all scams that took place in the state since 2013.

Former minister and Rajarajeshwari Nagar MLA Muniratna has filed a defamation suit against contractors' association president D Kempanna for not giving any evidence supporting the 40% commission allegation made against some ministers in the previous BJP government, Bommai said.

Bill tabled to scrap BJP govt's amendment to APMC Act

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka APMC (Regulation and Development) (Amendment) Bill, 2023, was tabled in the Assembly on Wednesday.

"It is proposed to restore the earlier provision under the Act, which enables APMCs to have control over trading of notified agricultural produce at their yards to protect the interests of farmers," according to the Bill.

The Bill pointed out that the amendment made by previous BJP government allowed trading outside APMC yards and stated that this neither helped farmers in getting remunerative prices for their produce nor in improving their economic status.

It said farmers, who sold their produce outside APMC yards, are prone to exploitation by traders in the absence of a regulatory mechanism. Also, the flow of revenue to the government under different heads of taxes has been affected because of trading not taking place at APMC yards.

The Bill stated that farmers will be benefited by way of competitive and fair prices for their produce sold under the Unified Market Platform. As there is no online system to ensure transparency in trading outside APMC yards, farmers will not get remunerative prices for their produce.

There is a mechanism under the Act for settlement of disputes between farmers and functionaries at APMC yards regarding weight and payment made for the produce sold. But the same dispute redressal mechanism is not available for transactions made outside APMC yards by farmers, the Bill said.

POLICE CRACK DOWN ON OVERSPEEDING VEHICLES ON B'LURU-MYSURU E-WAY

Ramanagara, Mandya, Mysuru police to enfore speed limit; 44 vehicles fined in two days

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

TO curb accidents on the Bengaluru-Mysuru Expressway, police have started cracking down on overspeeding vehicles. While the speed limit on the expressway is 100 km per hour, many vehicles are breaking the limit and that is said to be one of the reasons for accidents on the 119-km e-way.

Additional Director General of Police (Traffic and Road Safety) Alok Kumar, who travelled along the e-way last week, got accident data from Ramanagara, Mandya and Mysuru district police. According to the report, the e-way witnessed 296 accidents since January and of these 132 were fatal.

Using radar speed guns, the Ramanagara police on Monday and Tuesday started booking vehicles for overspeeding. Till Tuesday night, Ramanagara police slapped fines on 44 vehicles that were crossing the limit. Sources from the police department said the speed limit enforcement will be done by Mandya and Mysuru police also and there were no clarity on the total number of vehicles booked on Wednesday.

Alok Kumar was not available for comments.

512 accidents on e-way since Jan, says minister

The state government on Wednesday said it will look into motorists' safety on the Bengaluru-Mysuru Expressway and take appropriate measures.

Responding to JDS MLC Marithibbe Gowda's question in the Legislative Council, PWD Minister Satish Jarkiholi said there are some issues and they will take them up with the National Highway Authority of India (NHAI) officials to rectify them.

"It is not completely in our control. We will hold a meeting with NHAI officials and take decisions," the minister said.

The minister also said they have already discussed the matter with Union Minister Nitin Gadkari and that the state government is looking at the issue seriously.

According to information provided by the minister, 512 accidents were reported on the Bengaluru-Mysuru Expressway since January 2023, in which 123 persons died and 585 people sustained serious injuries. Of them, 245 accidents were reported between the Bengaluru-Nidaghatta stretch of the highway.

Gowda urged the state government to take up the issue with the Centre as many people lost their lives in accidents. He said the project was not implemented as per the original detailed project report.

Govt announces 50% rebate for traffic fines

Bengaluru: In response to the request made by the Karnataka State Legal Services Authority (KSLSA), the state government issued an order declaring a 50 per cent rebate in the fine imposed in traffic e-challan cases registered by the police department before February 11, 2023. According to a government order on Wednesday, this rebate will be available to those cases to be settled till September 9, 2023. This was after resolved to appeal the government in the meeting chaired by the Justice G Narendar, chairman of KSLSA, on June 14, 2023, to announce 50 per cent rebate. ENS

Post office to open 60 more dak centres to give fillip to exports

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

TO boost exports from the state, the Karnataka Postal Circle will open 60 more export facilitation centres (Dak Niryat Kendras) in all its head-offices and a few sub-post offices. It has set itself an ambitious target of setting them all up by August 15.

Ten such kendras are presently operational in Chamarajpet and Dooravani Nagar in Bengaluru, Mysuru, Saraswatipuram, Channapatna, Dharwad, Bagalkot, Vijayapura, Belagavi and Bidar.

"This is part of an effort to set up such centres in every state. They will be near the place of production thereby offering a big boost for manufacturers. All our 56 head post offices will have such a centre shortly and three of them have already opened them up," Chief Postmaster General (CPMG), Karnataka Postal Circle, S Rajendra Kumar told TNIE on Wednesday.

Documents relating to export items can be submitted online and parcels booked at any Niryat Kendra. They will be despatched to Bengaluru with the customs clearance done at the Foreign Post Office in Chamarajpet. "Earlier, traders had to depute staff to physically come down to Bengaluru and get the clearance for their international consignments. This need not be done anymore," he said.

Citing an instance, the CPMG said after a facilitation centre was opened in Belagavi, a homeopathic outlet there has started despatching medicines to the United States easily. "Manufacturers will be able to boost their exports manifold as the despatch centre will be in their vicinity and the process too will be simple," the CPMG added.

On benefits for customers, Kumar said pick-up facility for bulk customers, packaging solutions, guidance on customers documentation and generation of Import Export Code (IEC) will be available.

PO booking hours extended beyond 3 pm

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Postal Circle has extended the booking hours at its counters across the state. This will help offshoot the business taken away by courier agencies functioning beyond 3 pm, the deadline when most post-offices stop accepting bookings.

Chief Postmaster General (Karnataka Circle) S Rajendra Kumar told TNIE, "We have extended our working hours at all post offices beyond 3 pm from July 1. The bookings will stop 30 minutes before the closure timing of the specific post-office. Earlier, only the GPO or the Evening Post Office had to be visited for that. Only non-cash transactions will be permitted."

The following transactions will be offered after normal business hours: Booking of accountable articles and eMOs, epayment/bill collections, Aadhar transactions, postage stamps and stationery sale and issue of IPOs.

Hoteliers seek cut in commercial cylinder GST

The Bruhat Bangalore Hotel Association has urged the Centre to reduce the rates of petrol, diesel and commercial cylinders. They pointed out that the price of a barrel of crude oil in the international market has come down from 134 dollars to 72 dollars but the price of petrol and diesel remained the same and this has increased their cost of operations. They also insisted that the GST on commercial cylinders be reduced to 5 per cent. Association president P C Rao said, "The rate of a tonne of LPG has come down by 58 dollars. So we request the Centre to reduce the cost of commercial and domestic cylinders and help the hotel owners to reduce the cost of their operations." ENS

Boarding display screens go blank, fixed after an hr

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

FLYERS were left in the lurch for almost an hour at Terminal 1 of Kempegowda International Airport on Wednesday morning when display screens that specify boarding gates for flights malfunctioned.

Among those waiting to find out his boarding gate was IT professional Amit Sharma, who was to take an Indigo flight (6E 855) from Bengaluru to Hyderabad. "I had already done my web check-in on Wednesday morning and had no check-in baggage too. The e-ticket does not specify a boarding gate unlike the physical boarding pass given to those who handover luggage to be checked-in. So, I had no idea about my boarding gate and kept waiting for it in front of the display screens around 6.40 pm. I noticed three blank display boards," he said.

Many people were standing in front of the screens waiting for their boarding gates to appear, Sharma added. "I saw them move around and check out screens too." "The display was not working for a short while," confirmed an airport source. "It was restored soon. There was no impact on flights at all," the source added.

Bag-free Saturdays make a comeback in govt-run schools

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

SAMBHRAMA Shanivara (Celebration Saturday) will make a comeback to government schools from this academic year.

The Department of State Educational Research and Training (DSERT) announced that schools across the state have been instructed to restart the initiative. It was launched in 2019 under then education minister S Suresh Kumar, making one Saturday of a month bag-free for students.

The former minister had stated that the initiative was to encourage creativity in students through activities like playing, singing or listening to stories apart from learning through textbooks. In this context, DSERT has also released ten modules for teachers that can be taught to students without the need for textbooks.

"It has been ordered to celebrate one Saturday as a bag-free day every month with the aim of making the children learn lessons cheerfully, without burdening them on the subject and giving them a pleasant learning experience. Ten self-explanatory modules for students in various subjects and a guide for teachers to develop civic consciousness by engaging children in multi-faceted activities has been released," DSERT said in a notification.

To ensure that the initiative is implemented properly, DSERT has also ordered reports to be given and progress meetings to be undertaken at the district, block and cluster level to study the effects of the initiative. Meanwhile, district and block officials have also been tasked with visiting schools to ensure that the initiative is being observed.

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
You may turn your attention to financial affairs today - bills, loans, guarantees and the like. You're still in a gambling mood, but I am sure you are aware that the chances of making a loss are greater than making a profit, so take your chances with care.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)
All the most intense, harrowing and stressful planetary squares and conjunctions are now in the past. Hopefully, you have survived as a Taurean should, with grace, charm, good manners and an insistence that emotional confrontations are a waste of time.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)
The Moon is in a friendly position, which is astrological shorthand for saying that you can afford to relax, and even insist that things are done your way. Just understand that your requests must be phrased extremely sensitively, otherwise you could provoke completely the wrong reaction.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)
The Sun is about to adjust its position and, when it does, you will gain a new perspective on the financial situation. Today's lunar picture, though, urges you to give a little extra attention to your family relationships: someone seems to think that you have been neglecting them.

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)
As the planets shuffle around your solar chart they take you through interlocking periods which can last for anything from a day to a decade. One new celestial phase will see you labouring hard to settle your financial security and, to this end, you may now discuss your plans with those in the know.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You should now be feeling more confident socially, and this will enable you to function better at work, at home or on holiday. However, if you're a wise Virgo, you'll realise that you are still very vulnerable, so you'll keep your emotional defences at the ready.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Astrologers describe you as a lover of justice, but that is not the same thing as being honest. In fact, it does now seem that you may be justified in telling a small white lie in order to spare someone else's feelings. It's a matter of fine judgement, but if anyone can do it, you can.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Life should be most straightforward for Scorpionic go-getters, who are able to pursue their ambitions with a sensible degree of self-interest. However, if you don't fall into this category, your salvation lies in some sort of community team-work.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Continuing pleasant planetary influences draw out your social generosity. I don't mean this necessarily in a financial sense, more that you will be willing to give of your inner self. There's but the merest chance of a slight spot of financial friction later on.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Uranus and Neptune provide a perpetual reminder that life is not as easy as it was always supposed to be. Let me give you some advice which does for the whole year, and that is not to worry unduly if daily certainties start to disappear like a mirage on a hot day.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Your planets are still not playing fair, and you may have been irritated by other people's willingness to move the goalposts. On the other hand, today, you may occupy the moral high ground, which will at least give you some cause for satisfaction. That has to be good news!

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Pisceans are not supposed to be good at handling money, a rule which is true in most, though not all, cases. That said, whatever your personal attitudes, joint financial arrangements do require a little serious thought. People who have done you a good turn deserve no less.

HEALTH Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao inaugurated an exclusive health camp for members of the LGBTQIA+ community in Bengaluru on Wednesday, aiming to create a more inclusive environment.

Doctors advocated for the community, saying that stigma and discrimination are major reasons why people don't get access to quality healthcare, despite being prone to health issues including STIs, hormonal issues and problems related to sex reassignment surgeries. Over 100 people availed free health checkups at the camp, which was organised at a BBMP hospital in Wilson Garden.

HC: Elderly can hire lawyers to fight cases before AC, DC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court came to the rescue of senior citizens by empowering them to take legal assistance by engaging advocates to represent their cases before Assistant Commissioners (ACs) and Deputy Commissioners (DCs), by rendering Section 17 of the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007, unenforceable, as it is ultra vires Section 30 of the Advocates' Act.

Justice M Nagaprasanna passed the order while allowing the petition filed by an 82-year-old person from Udupi district, questioning the order dated February 21, 2023, issued by the DC. It denied representation of the petitioner by an advocate in the appeal proceedings against his children, citing prohibition under Section 17 of the Act to engage an advocate.

Quashing the Udupi DC's order, the court directed that the order copy be forwarded to the chief secretary to notify ACs and DCs under the Act, to permit representation of advocates. Rejecting the apprehension of the government advocate that entry of an advocate would delay proceedings or jeopardise the object behind the Act, the court said an advocate would neither delay proceedings nor jeopardise the object of the Act, but would streamline proceedings to be as per law.

The court said the petitioner's contention merits acceptance as he is an octogenarian seeking protection under the Act. "Looking at the age of the petitioner, he could not defend himself in contra-distinction to the vehement defence put up by his children. This has resulted in a fractured order passed by the AC, as there is only a direction -- that the petitioner and his wife should not be disturbed from the house, but there is no order to maintain the petitioner," the court added.

"In cases where the petitioners are more than 60, 70 or 80 years, they would not be in a position to defend their own case, and would sometimes become tongue-tied in the face of the vehement opposition put up by the children. Apart from the legality of the issue, the facts of the case at hand are grave enough to permit assistance by a legal practitioner," the court noted.

Special court rejects plea of accused for police reports in Tamil

YATHIRAJU @ Bengaluru

THE Special Court for NIA cases rejected the application filed by two accused persons from Tamil Nadu, seeking directions to furnish copies of the police report and its enclosures in the Tamil language, on the open threat issued to judges of the Karnataka High Court. The judges, including the Chief Justice, were part of the bench which delivered the verdict on the hijab ban in classrooms.

"This court is not duty-bound to supply the translated copies…In view of the decision of the High Court of Madras, the accused can go for a translation of the documents at their own cost, for a better understanding of the trial," said Judge Gangadhara CM, rejecting the application filed by R Rahamathullah and Jamala Mohammad S, under Section 207 CrPC.

The special court said that not furnishing translated copies to the accused in their mother tongue is not denial of a fair trial, which is guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution.

The court also said that the mother tongue of the accused persons is different, as they are from another part of the country. They don't know how to read and write Kannada or English. The NIA chargesheet in English is voluminous, ranging from 1,000 pages to 20,000 pages. If the court directs NIA to furnish the translated copies, the agency would have to do translation work instead of investigation, the court added.

Vidhana Soudha police registered a case against the accused, and the court took cognisance of offences punishable under provisions of the IPC and Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, in April 2023. After the hijab verdict, at an open public meeting, the accused had addressed the HC Chief Justice in the singular, the verdict in a vulgar language and had given open threats of murder.

The accused had contended that if copies of the documents are not given in Tamil, they will not be in a position to put up a proper defence, and be deprive of their life and personal liberty. Karnataka Bar Association advocates are refusing to appear on their behalf, fearing criticism, the accused claimed.

City man is Asia's oldest recipient of bi-lateral lung transplant

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A 78-year-old NRI patient from Bengaluru has become Asia's oldest recipient of a high-risk bi-lateral lung transplant performed at a private hospital in Chennai.

Rishi (name changed), was suffering from aspiration pneumonia (a condition when food or liquid is breathed into the airways of the lungs instead of being swallowed), along with acute respiratory distress syndrome (ARDS).

Doctors said that the patient had choked on food while attending a wedding and had difficulty breathing the same night. He was taken to a hospital where food particles were found stuck in his lungs. He was put on a ventilator for 15 days, as his oxygen saturation levels went below 40 per cent, but his condition did not improve. Since there were no signs of improvement, he was initiated on ECMO (Extra Corporeal Membrane Oxygenation).

Despite being kept on ECMO for over 50 days, his condition did not improve, and he was transferred to Chennai's MGM Healthcare.

Since the patient was fit otherwise, a lung transplant surgery was advised. He was accordingly registered in Tamil Nadu for a bi-lateral lung transplant and underwent the procedure, following the availability of a suitable donor.

Dr KR Balakrishnan, Director, Institute of Heart and Lung Transplant and Mechanical Circulatory Support and Consultant (cardio thoracic and vascular surgeon), MGM Healthcare, explained: "Given the patient's condition, there were several challenges while performing the surgery. He was transferred to the ICU immediately after the procedure to ensure his wellbeing, and he will be transferred in the coming days."

Angry with wife, man slashes mom-in-law's face with blade, flees

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

A 37-year-old woman got around 34 stitches all over her face after her son-in-law attacked her with a blade. The accused, Manjunath (27), was upset with his wife who had returned to her parents' house after a fight. He went in search of her, but she was not at home.

He asked his mother-in-law, Bhavani, but she did not give him a satisfactory reply. Frustrated, Manjunath took a blade from his shirt pocket and slashed her face multiple times. She is undergoing treatment in Victoria Hospital. The incident took place between 11pm and 11.50pm on Sunday, when Bhavani was alone at home. The victim's oldest daughter, Suhana, rushed her mother to KC General Hospital and from there to Victoria Hospital for treatment.

"We are unable to recognise my mother's face as it is completely disfigured. She is in extreme pain due to the 34 stitches all over her face," Suhana told TNIE. Bhavani, a resident of Kamalanagar, filed a complaint with Basaveshwara Nagar police station on Monday afternoon. The accused, a resident of Srirampura and an auto driver, is on the run.

"The accused had married the victim's second daughter Chaitra. It was a love marriage. Chaitra had returned to her parents' house as her husband was not taking good care of her. The accused would visit his in-laws' house and fight with his wife. On Sunday night, Manjunath came to take her back, and when he did not see her, he called Suhana, who had also gone out. When he did not get a satisfactory reply, he abused Bhavani and Suhana," said an officer who is part of investigations. Basaveshwara Nagar police registered a case of attempt to murder (IPC 307) along with other sections of the IPC against the accused, who is at large.

37-year-old man murdered by relatives

Bengaluru: A 37-year-old man was murdered by his relatives over a trivial row in Gopalapura in Magadi Road. The victim, who was attacked on Tuesday around 2.30 pm, succumbed to his injuries on Wednesday. The victim, identified as Sonu Pasha, was a resident of 3rd cross in Gopalapura. Pasha had allegedly abused his female relative staying in Ramachandrapura. Irked by this, her family members went near Pasha's house and ensued an altercation, during which the accused attacked the victim with a blunt weapon. Pasha, who fell unconscious, was shifted to a nearby hospital, where he breathed his last. Magadi Road police registered a case and are further investigating.

Biocon Biologics' Humira biosimilar now available in US

ENS @ Bengaluru

BIOCON Biologics Ltd has announced that HULIO (adalimumab-fkjp) injection, a biosimilar for Humira (adalimumab) – used to treat rheumatoid arthritis -- is now available for patients in the US, after five years of experience in Europe and two years in Canada.

HULIO meets the rigorous biosimilar approval standards of the FDA. Like Humira, HULIO is citrate-free and is made without natural rubber latex (to help reduce hypersensitivity reactions). The company also offers a robust patient support programme -- HULIO360, providing benefits like verification and prior authorisation support, copay assistance, a bridge programme for eligible patients, and at-home nurse injection training.

"The launch of HULIO, our biosimilar adalimumab, is an important milestone as it expands our well-known biosimilar product offering to patients in the United States. This launch builds on our strong presence in oncology and diabetes and reaffirms our commitment to enabling affordable access to biologics," said Shreehas Tambe, CEO and MD, Biocon Biologics Ltd.

"We are pleased to make HULIO, a patient-friendly, two-click, pre-filled pen available in the US for patients with certain inflammatory diseases," said Mathew Erick, Chief Commercial Officer of Advanced Markets, Biocon Biologics Ltd.

Cong guarantees creating confusion in state: Ashoka

BJP moves adjournment motion; Ex-DyCM says no warranty for the five guarantees

Assembly session in progress on Wednesday | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Opposition BJP on Wednesday slammed the Ruling Congress over the five guarantees, and the delay in its implementation. In the Assembly, BJP MLAs moved an adjournment motion to discuss the issue. In his preliminary submission seeking to move the adjournment motion, former deputy chief minister and senior BJP MLA R Ashoka took on the Congress government over the five guarantees. "They do not deliver what they promise. They (Congress MLAs) do not have any right to sit in the House," he said, adding that the guarantee schemes with conditions are creating confusion and chaos in Karnataka.

Congress MLAs insisted that the Speaker reject the adjournment motion as it is not a matter of urgent public importance. Law Minister HK Patil appealed to the Speaker to reject the BJP's adjournment motion request. Speaker Khader, however, agreed to allow the BJP's motion and allowed them to discuss under Rule 69.

Ashoka said that ahead of the May 10 Assembly elections, the Congress had lured voters by promising five guarantees and said that the assurances would be implemented within 24 hours of coming to power. "When the guarantee schemes were announced, there were no conditions... They said everything is free of cost — free travel for all women in all RTC buses, 200 units of free power, Rs 3,000 for all unemployed youths, 10kg free rice to every member of a BPL household and Rs 2,000 for every woman in the house. But soon after the results were announced, they came to power and started putting many conditions," Ashoka said, adding that there is no warranty for the five guarantees.

Referring to the Shakti scheme which offers women free travel in state-run road transport corporation buses, Ashoka said, "Earlier they said it is free for women in all buses... but now they say only in non-premium services. The buses are always crowded... There were instances of doors and windows getting damaged owing to the crowd. Shakti scheme has also affected the livelihood of autorickshaw drivers. Why didn't the government think of the consequences before announcing the scheme?"

On Gruha Lakshmi scheme offering Rs 2,000 to women heads of families, Ashoka said it was pitching mothers-in-law against their daughters-in-law.

Ashoka said the government was putting conditions to limit the number of beneficiaries. "Now, the CM is saying they need Rs 60,000 crore each year to implement the five guarantees... while the actual cost could cross Rs 1 lakh crore. I am confident that the government will not even spend Rs 60,000 crore," he said.

CT RAVI: CONGRESS WORKERS SHOULD PROTEST IN FRONT OF CM'S RESIDENCE

BENGALURU: Bharatiya Janata Party national general secretary CT Ravi said on Wednesday that Congress workers should protest in front of the houses of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar and not in front of the saffron party's office. Addressing reporters here, Ravi sought to know if PM Modi promised to give 10kg of rice to the people of the state? It was Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar who had promised to implement five guarantees if their party was elected to power in the state. Congress workers went around distributing guarantee cards signed by Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar. Now, they are finding it difficult to implement the promised guarantees, he said. Asked if he would become state BJP president, Ravi said, "I have not asked for any post.'' To a question, he said, "I hope a BJP leader, who is not into adjustment politics, will be chosen as leader of opposition." ENS

Order probe into allegations of all govts, Tejaswini tells Siddu govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

BJP MLC Tejaswini Gowda urged the State Government to order an investigation into all allegations made against the state governments since 2013.

During the discussion on the Governor's speech in the Upper House on Wednesday, Congress MLCs said that the government will order a probe into scams and irregularities that took place during the previous BJP government's rule.

When her turn came, Tejaswini Gowda quipped saying she would welcome the move if the government orders a probe but there should be an investigation into all allegations against governments that ruled since 2013.

"The Congress misled people by claiming that the BJP government was a 40% commission government, which is utterly baseless. If there is a probe against corruption, the government should also investigate into allegations since 2013," she demanded, adding that the Governor's speech was vague and lacked any direction.

Meanwhile, Congress MLCs UB Venkatesh and Nagaraju M attacked the BJP over not providing rice to implement the Anna Bhagya scheme. Venkatesh alleged that the BJP-led Centre was showing a stepmotherly attitude towards Karnataka and even refused to provide rice. He slammed the state BJP leaders for being quiet on the issue.

Y'pur APMC to be shifted only after HC order

Minister for Agriculture Marketing Shivanand S Patil said the Yeshwanthpur APMC market will be shifted to Dasanapura only after the High Court order.

Congress MLC S Ravi moved the calling attention motion, raising the issue of the long-pending process of shifting the Yeshwanthpur APMC market to Dasanapura on the outskirts of Bengaluru. Ravi said to reduce the burden on the Yeshwanthpur market, the Dasanapura market was established.

In his reply, minister Patil said several traders had approached the High Court in this matter and the government will take action based on the HC order.

No proposal to repeal anti-cow slaughter Act: Min

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Council on Wednesday witnessed pandemonium after Opposition BJP legislators staged a protest demanding a clear statement from the State Government that it will not repeal the Karnataka Prevention of Slaughter and Preservation of Cattle Act 2020. Responding to BJP MLC N Ravi Kumar's question if there is any proposal before the government to repeal the Act, Animal Husbandry Minister K Venkatesh said that there is no such proposal, but they are discussing the pros and cons of the law. Not satisfied with the reply, BJP MLCs rushed to the well of the House demanding a clear statement that the Act will not be repealed and it will be implemented effectively. Ravi Kumar also sought clarification from the minister on his June 3, 2023, remark that, "If buffaloes can be slaughtered, then why now cows."

The BJP member accused the government of not implementing the act effectively and not taking any action against those involved in slaughtering cows. Despite the directives from Council Chairman Basavaraj Horatti, the members refused to return to their seats till the minister gives an assurance that the Act will not be repealed. BJP and Congress MLCs were involved in a verbal duel. Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda accused BJP of trying to politicise the issue and wasting the Council's time. Amid the din, the Chairman continued the proceedings for a while and adjourned the House.

GST (Amendment) Bill tabled

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Congress government on Wednesday tabled Karnataka Goods and Services Tax (Amendment) Bill 2023 in the Legislative Assembly.

The government proposed amendments to Section 10, Section 14 Section 17, Section 18, Section 10, Section 23, Section 30, Section 37, Section 39, Section 44, Section 52, Section 54, Section 56, Section 62, Section 122, Section 132, Section 138 and also retrospective exemption to activity in transactions as specified in Schedule 3 of the Act.

It may be recalled that extracts of GST-related amendments were made in the Finance Act, 2023 and notified by the Union Government on March 31. The Bill was placed by Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitaraman in the Lok Sabha.

The Goods and Service Tax (GST) Bill passed in the Lok Sabha came into effect in 2017. Essentially, GST is a single indirect tax on supply of goods and services from the manufacturer to consumer. It replaced many indirect taxes such as Central Sales Tax, Value-Added Tax, Excise Duty, Service Tax, and so on.

Experts opined that after the recent Union Budget session discussed these issues, it has been decided that many amendments have to be mandatorily adopted by all states. The proposed amendments have been discussed and their adoption will only make the GST process more efficient.

DECLARE K'TAKA DROUGHT-HIT: BSY TO GOVT

DAVANAGERE: Senior BJP leader and former CM BS Yediyurappa on Wednesday demanded that the State Government declare Karnataka as a drought-hit state. The former CM said that not even 10% of land has been sown in the state. "This clearly indicates that the agriculture sector has been hit. The government should declare the state drought-affected," he said, adding that the both present and former BJP legislators will raise the issue both inside and outside the Legislature. Meanwhile, Yediyurappa said that the BJP will appoint the Leader of the Opposition in the Assembly in a day or two. ENS

Govt promises stern action against land grabbers

ENS @ Bengaluru

REVENUE Minister Krishna Byre Gowda on Wednesday said that the State Government will make honest efforts to clear encroachment of revenue lands. Responding to JDS member TA Sharavana's question, Gowda said that 2,82,130 acres of revenue land in Karnataka has been encroached.

The DCs have been directed to take measures to clear encroachments by issuing notices under the Karnataka Land Revenue Act and registering cases, he said. Task Forces headed by Deputy Commissioners have been formed in the districts.

The government has taken serious note of encroachments and sought a report from the officers, he said. He admitted that it (encroachment) cannot be done without the involvement of officials.

Come on time, get certificate, Speaker tells legislators

ENS @ Bengaluru

To encourage discipline and teach legislators time management skills, Speaker UT Khader Wednesday announced that those who come to the House on time will get certificates.

When the proceedings began at 11 am Wednesday, BJP members stormed the well seeking an adjournment motion on the guarantee scheme. Khader assured them that they will be given time. "I want you to attend the session. Whoever comes early, will get a prize," he said. A member objected, saying that a certificate will be more suitable instead of a prize to which Khader agreed.

Khader read out the names of legislators who came on time Tuesday, which included Darshan Puttaniah from Melkote and Suresh Kumar from Rajajinagar among others. Those who came on time Wednesday, their names will be read out Thursday, he said.

During a heated debate between the treasury and the opposition benches, Congress members began shouting. "For ruling party members, patience is important. I can understand if the opposition members do this, but not the ruling party members," Khader said.

'Why is govt selective in ordering probe?'

MUNIRATNA said, "If the government is really against corruption, all scams that took place from 2013 to March 2023 should be investigated. Whoever is guilty should be punished. Why is this government selective in ordering investigations into scams?"

Siddaramaiah as Leader of Opposition in the Legislative Assembly raised the issue and sought a judicial inquiry in 2022 following the association's allegation. The association had also written to Prime Minister Narendra Modi to initiate action in this regard. Congress also made it a poll plank.

"One of the reasons for people rejecting BJP in the May 10 Assembly elections was the 40% commission allegation. Major development works in the state stopped because of this," Industries Minister MB Patil told reporters on Tuesday, welcoming the decision of the government to order a judicial probe.

'₹10cr per transfer', Kumaraswamy claims he has proof of scam

BENGALURU: JDS leader HD Kumaraswamy on Wednesday claimed he had proof about the transfer scam in the form of an audio clip involving a minister's conversation, but stopped short of naming the minister. Waving a pen drive just before he entered Vidhana Soudha, Kumaraswamy said, "I am not speaking without proof. When the time comes, I will reveal more details about the conversation recorded in this pen drive... Yesterday there were two transfers at Rs 10 crore per transfer in one department. There is a person who makes Rs 50 lakh commission on each transfer." The corridors of power are now abuzz about the name of the minister involved. The JDS leader had earlier taunted the government about the 'YST tax'. He said, "I have also seen adminis-tration. After 75 years of Independence, there is one section that collects money and enjoys it, and the poor remain poor.'' ENS

'APMC's role restricted due to amendment'

"APPROXIMATELY one lakh people are working at APMC yards by obtaining licenses from APMC committees. Porters, weighing men, cart operators, and assistants for traders, commission agencies and stockists are among them. These workers will lose their jobs. Hence, there is a need to amend the existing law," the Bill stated. Further, the Bill explained that APMCs contribute to the Revolving Fund set up by the government for implementation of the Minimum Support Price Scheme.

"When prices of agricultural produce fall below MSP, the revolving fund comes to the rescue of farmers. Prior to the amendment of the Act, APMCs contributed Rs 125 crore to the revolving fund annually. Because of the amendment, the APMCs' role has been restricted to their yards only, affecting their income. Hence, the contribution to the revolving fund has come down to 50%, which is Rs 60 crore," it stated.

The Karnataka Transparency in Public Procurements (Amendment) Bill, The Karnataka State Road Safety Authority (Amendment) Bill, and Karnataka Legislature (Prevention of Disqualification) (Amendment) Bill were among the Bills tabled in the Assembly on Wednesday.

Tomato thieves on the prowl, leave farmer poorer by Rs 2 lakh

UDAYA KUMAR BR @ Hassan

SOMASHEKAR is dejected. The small farmer was looking forward to harvest his tomato crop, grown on two acres, and hoping to make a killing. The season's bounty would have fetched him more than Rs 2 lakh.

But in the dead of night on Tuesday, a goods carrier rolled into the fields belonging to Somashekar (60) and his son Dharani, in Gonisomenahalli village of Belur taluk. Miscreants swiftly plucked the tomato crop, loaded up the vehicle and drove away. With prices touching Rs 110-150, the humble tomato is now a prized possession. Somashekar and Dharani had guarded the crop with their life, spending days and nights in the fields, and even having breakfast and dinner there. Somashekar, who had suffered a paralytic attack in his left side five years ago, used his right hand to tend to the crop. They had let their guard down on Tuesday night, and the crop was gone. The helpless father and son are now seeking justice. Somashekar said the entire crop was lost as the miscreants had damaged the plants too, and flowers and buds had dropped off. "We lost many crops for five years, due to various reasons," they rued. For the first time, they had expected to get a handful of cash.

Somashekar's destroyed field in Gonisomenahalli of Belur taluk

According to police, the miscreants had picked around 90 bags of tomatoes till the early hours of Wednesday. Police found liquor bottles and cigarette packets at the spot, and suspect the involvement of locals. Senior horticulture officials also visited Somashekar's field and promised compensation. Tomatoes are selling at Rs 110 to Rs 150 per kg in retail markets. Sources said that over 50% of the crop had fallen off due to a dry spell. Halebid police registered a case.

Miscreants target trucks

In Mysuru, as the price of tomatoes crosses the Rs 150-mark, incidents of tomato pilferage from the APMC Yard and markets have been reported. While no formal complaints have been registered, it is said that about 85kg of tomatoes were stolen from a truck parked near the APMC Yard, and four crates of the vegetable were taken from a truck in MG Road market.

The Prime Minister will lay the foundation stone for a 176 km long National Highway project worth over Rs 5,550 crore. This project will reduce the distance between Mancherial and Warangal by around 34 km, thus reducing travel time and decongesting traffic on NH-44 and NH-65

Ensure K'taka releases water: TN to Centre

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chennai

TAMIL Nadu Water Resources Minister Duraimurugan on Wednesday urged Union Jal Shakti Minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat to ensure that Karnataka releases water due to TN from the Cauvery immediately as standing crops in its delta districts are in urgent need of the water.

Duraimurugan met Shekhawat at his office in New Delhi and submitted a memorandum titled 'Non-release of Cauvery water by Karnataka as per the judgment of the Supreme Court and the Mekedatu project proposed by Karnataka'. The memorandum explained the month-wise allocation of Cauvery water to TN and that Karnataka had failed to release the full quota of water for the month of June.

"From June till July 3, Karnataka should have released 12.213 tmc of water to TN. But we have received only 2.993 tmc. This is a deficit of 9.220 tmc and should be released immediately to save the standing crops that will otherwise wither," Duraimurugan told reporters. He added that he'd requested Shekhawat to press the Cauvery Water Management Authority to instruct Karnataka to release the water. "The union minister immediately asked a joint secretary in his ministry to talk to the CWMA in this regard. We hope for the best," he said.

When asked if the DMK, as an alliance partner of the Congress currently in power in Karnataka, could have directly asked the Congress CM to release the water, Duraimurugan indicated that practically it was not possible. "We are firm in our stand not to allow a dam at Mekedatu," he added.

IN yet another rain-related death, a 34-year-old man was electrocuted at Kulai village near Suratkal on Wednesday. The deceased, Santosh, who was employed with a private company was on his way to work on Wednesday morning when the incident happened. As a tree fall had blocked the road, Santosh tried to scale a compound wall to pass through the spot and came in contact with a live wire the tree had brought down. A press statement from Dy Commissioner Mullai Muhilan MP said the kin of the deceased will get a compensation of Rs 5 lakh. This is the second death reported in DK in less than 24 hours. On Tuesday evening, 53 -year-old Suresh Gatty died after he fell into a storm water drain at Someshwar in Ullal taluk. His kin was handed over a compensation cheque of Rs 5 lakh as per NDRF and SDRF norms. Meanwhile, heavy rain coupled with strong wind continued to lash the region wreaking havoc in Mangaluru and other parts of DK on Wednesday.

A fisherman, who had ventured for fishing despite of red alert, was rescued by locals after his boat capsized in Netravati river under Pavuru Harekala-Adyar bridge. The water level started to rise in the river due to heavy downpour and his boat capsized. The locals standing on the bridge rushed to his rescue and brought him to safety using a rope.

K'taka records 38% deficit rainfall

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

UNLIKE the last two pre-monsoon and monsoon seasons, heavy rainfall is yet to arrive in Karnataka, barring the coastal regions, this year.

Officials at the IMD said overall, Karnataka has reported 38% deficit rainfall since June 1. Kodagu and Chikkamagaluru districts, which are major sources to fill KRS, Kabini and Harangi dams, have reported massive shortage. However, officials have predicted rainfall for the next five days and also issued red and orange alerts for a few districts.

While Kodagu reported 78 per cent deficit, Chikkamagaluru reported 60 per cent rain deficit since June. Similarly, Shivamogga, one of the major sources of water for Linganamakki, reported 66 per cent deficit, coastal Karnataka has a deficit of 31 per cent, north interior Karnataka 38 per cent and south interior Karnataka reported 46 per cent rainfall deficit.

"Only nine districts, like Bidar, Koppal, Bengaluru Urban, Bengaluru Rural, Chamarajanagar, Davangere, Kolar, Mandya and Mysuru witnessed normal rainfall since June 1. Kodagu, Chikkamagaluru and Shivamogga in south interior region reported massive rainfall deficit.

Siddeshwara ready to contest again

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Davangere

THANKING the BJP for giving his family the Davangere Lok Sabha ticket seven times in a row till 2019, MP Dr GM Siddeshwara on Wednesday said their family has consistently won the constituency.

Addressing the public after being greeted on his 71st birthday, Siddeshwara said, "My father G Mallikarjunappa won twice since 1990, and I won the constituency four times. This shows the love and affection of the people of the constituency.

The assembly poll, in which the BJP lost seven of eight assembly constituencies coming under Davangere parliamentary constituency is a minor setback, but our party workers are strong enough to bounce back and ensure the party's victory in the 2024 general elections, he added.

"We have to work hard for the BJP's victory in the general elections, and strengthen the hands of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who has delivered many programmes like Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan, Swanidhi and Swachh Bharat. Covid-19 vaccines were given to crores of people for free," he said.

He also requested workers to take up the task of winning the upcoming zilla panchayat and taluk panchayat elections which will be held shortly, and said it should be a prelude to parliamentary elections in mid-2024.

Expressing his readiness to contest the 2024 general elections if the party gives him the ticket, Siddeshwara said he is confident of winning for the fifth time. "Being an obedient BJP worker, I will work for the victory of the party," he said.

Chandrayaan-3 all set for launch next week

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

AHEAD of the launch of Indian lunar exploration mission – Chandrayaan-3 -- the fully assembled capsule was integrated into the Launch Vehicle Mark-3 (LVM-3) on Wednesday.

Chandrayaan-3, as part of the Chandrayaan programme, will be launched from the Satish Dhawan Space Centre at 2.30pm on July 13. Ahead of the launch, the Chandrayaan-3 capsule, consisting of the propulsion module, lander, rover and their respective payloads, have been integrated into the LVM-3, announced the ISRO.

The Chandrayaan-3 is the third mission under the Chandrayaan programme as a follow up to the Chandrayaan-2 which was launched in 2019. It will showcase India's capabilities in demonstrating a soft landing of the Chandrayaan lander, named Vikram, and deploying a lunar rover, named Pragyan, on the surface of the Moon.

Previously, the Chandrayaan-2 consisted of a lunar orbiter, lander and a lunar rover. However, the lander failed while attempting to soft land on the Moon's surface. The Chandrayaan-3 will continue its predecessor's mission in attempting to safely land the lander and deploy the lunar rover. The rover will attempt to study the lunar surface.

This will be the second Chandrayaan mission to use the LVM-3, a three-stage launch vehicle developed by ISRO. Prior to this, the LVM-3 was used to launch the Chandrayaan-2 as well as OneWeb satellites in October 2022 and March 2023.

ED attaches ₹17.42 cr in illegal mining case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Directorate of Enforcement (ED), Bengaluru has provisionally attached immovable properties worth Rs 17.24 crore in a case related to illegal mining under the provisions of Prevention of Money laundering Act. In this case, earlier ED has attached properties worth Rs 54.18 crore. The total attachment stands at Rs 71.42 crore in the case, the Central agency stated in an official release on Wednesday.

The ED initiated investigation under PMLA on the basis of an FIR registered by the Special Investigation Team, Lokayukta against Karadapudi Mahesh, his brothers and associates under various sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, and Prevention of Corruption (PC) Act.

"During the investigation, it was noticed that illegally mined iron ore was transported and traded by the main accused Mahesh and his brothers, K Govindaraj, K Sadashiva and K Kumar with the help of their associates without valid permits or on the basis of fake and forged permits to the tune of around Rs 62.92 crore," the ED stated. The agency added that the accused persons also "facilitated other persons/entities in transportation and trading of illegally mined iron ore by collecting around Rs 40.93 crore as risk money. Thus, the accused persons generated proceeds of the crime to the tune of Rs 103.85 crore and caused loss to the government exchequer."

"It was further noticed that most of the amount was received in cash and the same was used in acquisition of immovable properties in the name of accused persons and their family members during the relevant period of commissioning of the scheduled offence," the ED stated.

APPALLING CANADIAN APATHY TO ANTI-INDIA KHALISTANI ACTIVITIES

The impunity with which Khalistani radicals operate abroad and indulge in hate speech without a squeak from the respective governments indicates how little the latter care for Indian sensitivities. The latest arson attack on an Indian consulate in San Francisco and the release of provocative posters holding top Indian diplomats in Canada responsible for the murder of Khalistan Tiger Force chief Hardeep Singh Nijjar in British Columbia on June 18 was appalling. Nijjar had a ₹10 lakh Indian bounty on his head and was linked to the banned Sikhs for Justice outfit. Unidentified persons gunned him down at a parking lot outside a gurdwara in Surrey, the probe into which is nowhere near completion. Yet, the terrorists have been allowed to be the judge, jury and executioner without being hauled up for hate crimes. Canada has a history of indifference to crimes directed against India; the worst was the blowing up of Air India’s Kanishka by Khalistani zealots in 1985. That probe was botched up though most of the 329 on board who died were Canadian nationals, possibly because they were of Indian origin. Hauled up by India on Tuesday, Canada spoke about its commitment to the safety of diplomats and conceded that the posters were unacceptable. While it claimed it was committed to the Vienna Convention regarding the safety of diplomats, there wasn’t any perceptible action on the ground. The US strongly criticised the attack in San Francisco and promised to take strict action to protect the Indian mission and its diplomats.

On a different note, some Western nations appear to have a warped sense of free speech, like the recent permission Sweden’s police gave to an Iraqi national to burn a copy of the Quran outside a mosque on the first day of Eid. Only after a massive diplomatic backlash did Sweden condemn Islamophobia as unacceptable. Canada is opportunistic, too, as it panders to the Sikh vote bank. Foreign minister S Jaishankar recently said partner countries like Canada, the US, the UK and Australia have been requested not to give space to the Khalistani elements, warning it will affect bilateral relations. The next flashpoint could be on Saturday when ‘Khalistan Freedom Rallies’ are organised outside Indian missions abroad to protest Nijjar’s murder. Whether or not Canada will act on the Indian demand for decisive actions against the protesters who could desecrate the tricolour and indulge in violence remains to be seen.

SEXUAL ABUSE OF MINORS: SENSITISE STAKEHOLDERS

The Karnataka High Court has directed the Bengaluru city police commissioner to appoint a new officer to investigate further and submit a report within 10 weeks in a case of alleged sexual abuse of a four-year-old girl by her father. The HC rapped the police for its shoddy and hurried investigation. But this is not the first time Justice M Nagaprasanna has come down heavily on the stakeholders in POCSO cases, including the police. Last month, he dismissed a gynaecologist’s petition to quash a POCSO case registered against him for failure to report an incident of alleged sexual assault on a minor.

Sexual crimes against children largely go unreported, especially if they are intra-familial. Besides delays in reporting the incidents, families suppress these primarily for societal reasons. Very often in a divorce case, the wife may state domestic violence as the primary reason for seeking a divorce, and though she may be witness to her child also being abused, she wouldn’t bring it on record, to shield her child from entering the criminal justice system at a vulnerable age. When it comes to a child, it’s a tough decision between keeping the child safe from the offending parent/family member and registering a police complaint to bring the perpetrator to justice.

The POCSO Act mandates a high level of sensitivity by the police, advocates and the court in handling the investigation, prosecution and trial, keeping in mind “the best interest of the child”, said Dr S T Ramesh, former director general of police, Karnataka, and trustee, Enfold India, a Bengaluru-based nonprofit that addresses gender-based violence and supports survivors of child sexual abuse. Police have been sensitised and trained to handle and investigate POCSO cases, but their sensitivity remains “abysmal”, charged Vasudeva Sharma, the executive director of Child Rights Trust. However, it is not only the police that must be held accountable for botched-up investigations in heinous cases against children. A delay in reporting kills evidence. No law can save a child from being abused by an offending parent/family member or family friend, but in order to help the child get justice, society should step forward to quickly report the incident and unconditionally support the child in the process. It is a known fact that often, an abused child/adolescent may end up becoming a predator. Crime against children is the worst-known crime in human history and reality.

QUICK TAKE

PORCINE PROJECT

Assam will set up ‘pig schools’ collaborating with Denmark, among the world’s biggest pork producers, to modernise its piggeries. Fifty farmers will visit the Scandinavian country to learn pig-farming techniques. Lakhs of families in Assam are into backyard piggery, which the government wants to help turn commercial and viable. But we should know what to learn from the Danes. Denmark’s industrial efficiency has a questionable side, like sows medically pressurised for larger litters, their lives short and torturous. Our farmers need to know the latest culling, meat-processing, packaging and storing methods which can be implemented back home and taught to prospective farmers.

The state government is clueless on how to resolve the crisis, and the Centre apparently lacks the commitment to end the conflict despite flying in thousands of security personnel

GAMES POLITICIANS PLAY ON MANIPUR BATTLEFIELD

PRADIP PHANJOUBAM

Editor, Imphal Review of Arts and Politics

SOUMYADIP SINHA

More than two months after a communal clash broke out between two of Manipur’s prominent communities, the Meiteis and Kukis, there are still few signs of this agonising crisis drawing to a close. Sporadic and fatal gun violences are still reported in the foothills, ensuring that the dangerous atmosphere of bitter antagonism and mistrust between the two communities remains unextinguished, and with it the potential for raging infernos to break out again.

It is obvious the state government is clueless on how to proceed and resolve the crisis. Intriguingly so, the Centre apparently lacks the commitment to end this distressing stalemate in Manipur despite flying in thousands of security personnel. The deafening silence of Prime Minister Narendra Modi—who did not even extend a single word of consolation vis-à-vis Manipur’s excruciating trauma—is beginning to be seen by many as an added insult to injury. And this injury is slowly turning into a cynicism which can have lasting consequences. Before the Manipur violence broke out, the insurgency was on a decline. But with the latest bloody developments, both groups could see their ranks swell.

While Kuki militant organisations are not officially banned and 25 of them have formally entered what is known as the Suspension of Operations (SoO) agreement with both the Central and state governments, all Meitei insurgent groups are banned and none has agreed to come to the negotiation table so far. With their support bases waning, the latter were increasingly getting marginalised. If the current crisis is not handled well, either or both of these groups can rise again.

In the meantime, two events in Imphal grabbed headlines. One was a two-day visit starting June 29 of Congress leader Rahul Gandhi to the state, and the other was the spectacle of the BJP Chief Minister N Biren Singh first making known his intent to resign and then retracting it after his supporters blocked his way to the Raj Bhavan. He also allowed his supporters to theatrically tear up his resignation letter in a televised event that happened right in the middle of the road.

Under normal circumstances, the proximity of the two events would have gone unnoticed, but these are certainly not normal times. Moreover, there were also too many coincidences. Gandhi’s trip, self-admittedly, had nothing to do with politics and was prompted just by his desire to share the pain of the people of Manipur, in particular those displaced by the violence. To reiterate this, he held no press conferences, though the press did cover his visit.

In the afternoon of June 29, after arriving in Imphal by a chartered flight, he and his team, including local Congress leaders, left by road for Moirang (in Bishnupur district) and Churachandpur district straight from the airport. But before he could even reach Moirang, he was stopped by the Bishnupur district police owing to possible compromises to his safety, though the entourage had all necessary official clearances. They thus gave Moirang a miss and decided to return to Imphal and take a helicopter ride to Churachandpur instead.

The sorry event, if it was meant to prevent Gandhi from getting media attention, had the opposite effect. Numerous people, notably women, coming out in support of Gandhi to plead for his passage to Churachandpur, not only overwhelmed a few in the sidelines holding placards with slogans like “Rahul Gandhi Go Back”, but ensured Gandhi received very good press as well.

The next day, June 30, the drama intensified. Gandhi visited more relief camps, one in Imphal and then another in Moirang where he travelled by helicopter. He also met with several civil society leaders after this, and in the afternoon, he was to meet the governor of the state, Anusuiya Uikey, before heading back to Delhi.

In a parallel development, hints about the Manipur chief minister’s intent to resign became known from leaks to some media outlets. The resignation was first expected in the morning, but this got postponed, first to 1 pm and then 3 pm. This was about the time Gandhi completed all his appointments, including with the governor.

A crowd of the chief minister’s supporters had begun forming from late morning on the 200 metre-stretch between the chief minister’s bungalow and the Raj Bhavan, but no visible effort was made to disperse the crowd, though this is a high-security zone. When the chief minister finally emerged from his office at about 2.30 pm, he was stopped by his supporters. Among them were some of his cabinet colleagues, one of whom read out the chief minister’s very short resignation letter before handing it over to a woman in the crowd to do the needful.

Many now think the two events are a competition for good press, and rival camps now have their sets of questions. Did Rahul Gandhi choose this uncertain time to visit the state to win hearts and future votes or was it a genuine gesture to show he cares for those in agony? Was it timed to reap maximum dividends from the growing anger on the streets at the prime minister’s refusal to say anything to console the people or to encourage reconciliation?

On the other hand, was Chief Minister N Biren Singh’s decision to resign and then theatrically retract the decision a counterploy to upstage and usurp the positive media space Rahul Gandhi and his party were winning? Why did he not try to avoid the crowd of his supporters blocking the road if he was serious about his resignation? How did his resignation letter land in the hands of a cabinet colleague who read it out to the crowd on a megaphone, and thereafter handed it over to a woman leader in the crowd to tear it up?

The scramble over the chief minister’s move did manage to dislodge the Congress leader from headlines the next day, but not longer than just a day. If what happened was indeed a game of political publicity stunts, the question that remains after the media storm is: what tangible purpose did it serve? It has done nothing towards ameliorating the state of uncertainty those caught in the violence live in. Villagers in the foothills are still living in fear of becoming casualties, just as the estimated 45,000 who are living in relief camps are still in a state of despair, staring into a future for themselves and their children that only gets dimmer by the day.

HINDU UNDIVIDED FAMILY A LOOPHOLE IN UNIFORMITY

DUSHYANT ARORA

Lawyer based in Mumbai

In October 2017, a group of eminent citizens (Nilanjana Roy, T M Krishna, Major Gen Vombatkere, Gul Panag, Bezwada Wilson, Mukul Kesavan) and I submitted the draft of a progressive Uniform Civil Code (UCC), endorsed by former attorney general Soli Sorabjee, to the then chairperson of the 21st Law Commission of India. He had only one preliminary comment: “Is it necessary to include this provision about abolishing the Hindu Undivided Family? This will cause a lot of problems.”

The fundamental premise of UCC is that many different religious personal laws should be replaced by one uniform law. ‘Uniformity’ is relatively easier to implement vis-à-vis equality because there are varying conceptions of equality in a country as diverse as India.

Some point to the uniform civil code in Goa as an ideal model. This code is not uniform. Hindus are allowed bigamy, while others are not. Then there are provisions which will be controversial and met with hostility from all religions. Pre-nuptial agreements are legal, and there are limits to the percentage of assets that one can give to people other than one’s heirs.

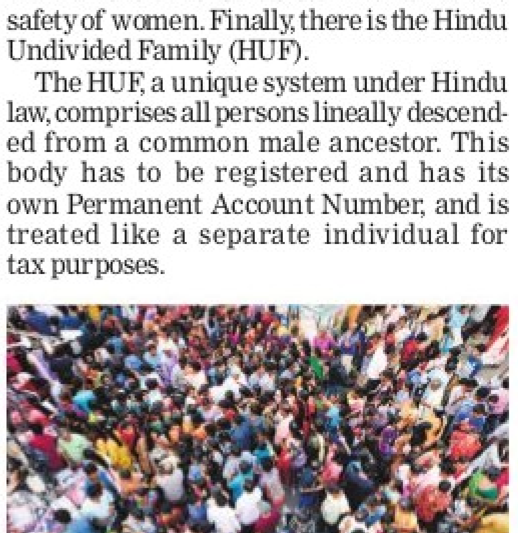
There are contradictions within Hindu law as well. The Hindu Marriage Act prohibits marriage between certain relatives; marrying cousins is common among Hindus in various parts of South India.

A study published by the Mumbai-based International Institute for Population Sciences (IIPS) based on NFHS-5 data revealed that the practice of polygamy is spread across religions and is diminishing with time. As per this report, 1.9% of Muslim women surveyed said their husbands had one more wife, while 1.3% of Hindu women said the same. There is variation by region also: in Telangana, the number of Hindus who practice polygamy is higher than Muslims, while in Assam, it is the opposite. Polygamy should be abolished across the board.

Then there is child marriage. Even though contracting a child marriage is illegal in India, the Hindu Marriage Act does not void a child marriage. The burden is on the child to seek annulment of such a marriage within a specified period of time after attaining majority.

Under the Hindu Marriage Act, ‘Saptapadi’ (the ritual of seven steps) is sufficient to constitute a binding and complete marriage. There is also a provision titled ‘Restitution of Conjugal Rights’, which, in practice, gives a husband the right to move the court to force his wife to live with him. This provision has come in for a lot of criticism and is considered detrimental to the safety of women. Finally, there is the Hindu Undivided Family (HUF).

The HUF, a unique system under Hindu law, comprises all persons lineally descended from a common male ancestor. This body has to be registered and has its own Permanent Account Number, and is treated like a separate individual for tax purposes.



EXPRESS PHOTO

Any attempt to abolish the Hindu Undivided Family will certainly result in tremendous protest and backlash from those affected. This will largely be the business and trader community, believed to be a core vote bank of the ruling party

For an illustration, let us assume that rent comes from some property owned by the family into the account of the HUF. In terms of tax brackets, this income will be treated separately, and this way, family members can save a lot of tax.

In its report, the Law Commission said inter alia that HUFs must be abolished and that “…it is high time that it is understood that justifying this institution on the ground of deep-rooted sentiments at the cost of the country’s revenues may not be judicious.”

The rate of increase in HUFs isn’t insignificant either. Data published by the Ministry of Finance reveals that in 2013–14, the number of registered HUFs was 9,60,004, and by 2018–19, the number had risen to 11,87,180.

HUFs are also inherently unjust and discriminatory against women, to say nothing of other non-cis-male gender persons. Until an amendment in 2005, daughters were not even allowed to be members of a HUF. Even after the amendment in 2005, they could still not be the karta of a HUF, a position which was reserved for the eldest man of the joint family only. In 2016, the Delhi High Court cleared the way for women to be a karta of a HUF. However, no amendments have been made to the tax statutes to give effect to this till date.

Any attempt to abolish the HUF will certainly result in tremendous protest and backlash from those affected. This will largely be the business and trader community, believed to be a core vote bank of the ruling party. Unsurprisingly, Asaduddin Owaisi, leader of the All India Majlis-e-Ittehadul Muslimeen (AIMIM), has challenged the BJP to abolish the HUF if it is truly sincere.

What are the options before the government? First, it can abolish HUF and try to manage the political fallout. Kerala has successfully done away with HUFs as far back as 1975 by passing the Kerala Joint Hindu Family System (Abolition) Act. Second, it could ignore the HUF and thus invite accusations of malice and discrimination. Without abolishing the HUF, any code will not be ‘uniform’. Third, it could give the option of this tax-saving entity to all religions because joint families are not exclusive to Hindus. There is no fourth option.

The HUF ought to be junked at the first opportunity. A remnant of India’s colonial past, it had no religious basis—the joint family business system was just incomprehensible to the English. It is also a cause for loss to the State exchequer.

As for the rest, a truly progressive and modern Uniform Civil Code will require that the government drop its opposition to same-sex marriage before the Supreme Court. It will also require that the BJP drops the bogey of Love-Jihad, which is just used to harass inter-religious couples. India doesn’t need regressive uniformity. It can, however, live with progressive diversity.

Poll violence

The SEC told Calcutta HC that West Bengal is not the only state which witnesses violence during elections and such instances take place in other states also. Politicians should actively promote a culture of non-violence, condemning any acts of violence and fostering an environment of tolerance, respect, and healthy debate. By addressing the issue of violence during elections, we can work towards ensuring that our democratic process remains a beacon of hope, fairness, and progress.

1937 Shariat Act–for Muslims or for Jinnah, Zamindars?

S GURUMURTHY
Editor, Thuglak, and commentator on economic and political affairs

FIRST OF TWO-PART SERIES

LESS than a week after the opposition parties met in Patna to oppose him, Narendra Modi threw a huge spanner into their works – the Uniform Civil Code (UCC). It was a philosophic challenge, also a political strategy. It split the 15 parties that met at Patna into three groups – one opposing the UCC, the next supporting it and the third confused whether to support or oppose. Modi's UCC idea seems more deeply thought than merely to divide the opposition. He knows that not supporting the UCC is equal to supporting the pre-partition Shariat Act of 1937 passed by the British. The UCC will not be written on a clean slate. It will be overwritten on the 1937 Act. The present political actors seem utterly illiterate about the 1937 Act and its sordid background. If Modi recalls the sleazy story of the 1937 Act, it will unveil secrets that can potentially nuke the opposition. Recalling the story of the 1937 Act will mean reinstating the pre-partition Idea of India, which appears to be Modi's dream project.

Climax first, story later

The long story later. Now straight to the climax. Today's political actors do not seem to know that it was not — repeat not — the Sharia, but the Hindu laws that governed the Indian Muslims before 1937. Muslims of all denominations, all over India, followed the uncodified local Hindu customs and usages. The 1937 Shariat Act was imposed on them as a win-win political deal between the British, keen to divide Hindus and Muslims, and the Muslim League, keen to lure the Muslims away from the Gandhi-led Congress. The intent of the League was first to cut off Muslims who were too mixed up with the Hindus through local Hindu customs and usages, then to create a Hindu-hostile Islamic identity for them, and finally to pave the way for the partition of India.

This hidden aim of the Muslim League was abetted by the British obliging the League with the 1937 Act. The mission of the 1937 Act had other hidden and sleazy side stories too. The 1937 Act, the joint strategy of the British and the League, contained provisions, to sabotage the Islamic Sharia. How? By secretly smuggling the Hindu customs and usages into the 1937 Act to save the property rights of the Muslim leaders, Jinnah and the Zamindars from harm by the Islamic Sharia. Did the Shariat Act of 1937 — now acclaimed as the holy law of Islam — contain Hindu law provisions to secure the property rights of the League leaders? Yes, it did. Indeed, it's an explosive story with a 1,000-year background.

> Look at the Sharia law 1937. It wasn't full Sharia law. The 1937 Act was a cocktail of legislated Islamic law and the continuance of the Hindu law smuggled into it. The League leaders felled two mangoes with one stone

No Sharia for 1,000 years

Islam came to India by trade in the 7th century and from the 8th century by the swords of Kasims and Ghaznis. It had spread to a large part of India by the 10th century. But when did the Sharia law – now claimed by the Islamists as the immutable part of Islam – legislated on the Islamic coverts in India? Any guess?

Not in the 11th century, not in the 12th, nor the 13th or the 14th or the 15th or the 16th or the 17th, not even in the 18th by which time the Islamic rule had virtually ended and power shifted first to the Marathas — read Hindus — and then the British. Not in the 19th century when the British rule was rooting and deepening. From when then? In 1937 — more than a century and a quarter after Aurangzeb, the most ardent Muslim ruler passed away without legislating Sharia for the Muslim convert.

The British government recognised the superiority of the prevailing local — read the Hindu — custom and usages among the converts over the Sharia. The History of the Evolution of Muslim Personal Law in India by K K Abdul Rahiman (1986) says the British gave strength to customs and usage that had long been adhered to particularly in matters of succession by sections of Indian Muslims.

Hidden political agenda, secret economic agenda

Why then the sudden move for the Sharia law in 1937? This leads to two more questions. One, did the Muslim converts, who did not think of the Sharia law for a 1,000 years, demand the Sharia law on their own? Two, did the British who ruled India for over two centuries suddenly think of the far-reaching Sharia law for Muslims that was bound to affect Hindu-Muslim harmony? The answers to these questions will unveil the truth that the 1937 law was a deal between the Muslim League – not the Muslims – and the British. First, the converts did not ask for Sharia. It was the Muslim League that did. The British had always a hidden political agenda to divide the Hindus and Muslims to perpetuate their rule. The League leaders who demanded the Sharia had a hidden political agenda to partition the country and a personal economic agenda to evade the Shariat law by secretly retaining the Hindu law to protect their property rights. Now look at the Sharia law 1937. It is explicit that it was no full Sharia law. The 1937 Act was a cocktail of legislated Islamic law and the continuance of the Hindu law smuggled into it. The League leaders felled two mangoes with one stone. One, they achieved psychological separation of Indian Muslims who were enmeshed in their traditions, habits and laws and prepared them for the eventual partition of the country. Two, they escaped the Islamic Sharia to preserve the economic power which the rich and powerful League leaders enjoyed under the traditional Hindu law. It was a conspiracy against not only against India and the Hindus but also against the Muslim masses.

Hindu law smuggled into Sharia

The critical part of the 1937 law contains just 92 words that override the traditional Hindu law converted Muslims were following and forced many rules of the Islamic Sharia on them. It is those 92 words in the 1937 Act that are now held out as the immutable and divine Islamic law which the Muslims cannot deviate from. But was the Sharia Act 1937 really the divine Islamic Sharia law prescribed for Muslims by Islam? No. It was and even now it is actually against the Islamic Sharia. Why? It smuggles in three core rights granted by the Hindu law into the Shariat. First, the 1937 law permitted Muslims to write Wills to leave their properties like the Hindus do, to whosoever they liked – which is prohibited by Islam. Second, it excluded the agricultural land – the most valuable asset then and even now – and made the laws of Hindu rashes continue to apply to govern the Muslims. And third, it permitted childless Muslims to adopt, like Hindus, which Islamic law — even the Prophet — prohibited. In pure Islamic theology, the 1937 Act is anti-Quran — a blasphemy in Islam. Who benefitted by the deal to smuggle the Hindu law into the 1937 Shariat law?

Hindu law for Jinnah, Zamindars; Sharia for the Muslims

The right to Will properties, not permitted by Sharia, smuggled into the 1937 Act was a personal deal Jinnah negotiated for himself first. Jinnah wanted his huge estate to pass as he wanted, not according to Sharia. Two years after the 1937, on May 30,1939, Jinnah did execute a Will to disinherit his daughter Dina who married a non-Muslim, a Paris, against his wishes. As his sole heir under the Sharia she should have got his entire estate. Jinnah's friend and prominent judge and jurist M C Chagla confirmed Jinnah wanted to disinherit Dina. Jinnah made his sister Fatima an executor of the Will and bequeathed to her all his movable assets and also the massive bungalow standing on a 2.5 acre plot in the most prestigious Malabar Hills area of Mumbai, valued at ₹1,000 crore now. He made lots of charitable provisions and just gave a small annuity to the disinherited Dina. Surprisingly, Dina herself was born of a Parsi lady whom Jinnah married and converted to Islam. The next two deviations from the Sharia in the 1937 Act — the exclusion of agriculture lands and allowing the right to adopt — were designed for the Zamindars and other propertied gentry who constituted the backbone of the Muslim League. The exclusion of the agricultural land ensured that the entire land remained in the hands of the male heirs as per the Hindu law and girls did not get a share in it as per the Sharia. The right to adopt ensured that the Zamindars and others adopt a male child like the Hindus to deny any male heir from getting the property as per Sharia. The 1937 Act was Sharia for Muslims and Hindu Law for Jinnah and Zamindars.

> The 1937 law smuggles in three core rights granted by the Hindu law, including one to write Wills to leave their properties like the Hindus do, to whosoever they liked, which is prohibited by Islam

Deal against Islam, by the leaders

Who would have insisted on the anti-Sharia Hindu law being smuggled into the 1937 Shariat Act? Obviously not the British. Why would they have insisted on the Muslims having the right to adopt, or the right to Will their properties or on the exclusion of agricultural lands from the ambit of the 1937 law? Who benefitted by the sneaking the Hindu law into the 1937 Act? The League leaders, not the British. Does it need a seer to say that those who had made deal with the British and insisted on continuing the Hindu law for themselves could only be those who benefited by it.

Can those who shouted from housetops that the 1937 Shariat Act is the Islamic law of the Muslims and cannot be touched by even Parliament, deny that the 1937 Act was Sharia law for Islamic politics and for Jinnah's and the Zamindars' economics, Hindu law.

By the deal with the British, the League leaders who secured their property rights by smuggling the Hindu law into Shariat Act, triggered the communal emotions of the Muslims. In just 10 years, the Shariat Act 1937 broke the Hindus and Muslim social mix, divided them, solidified the Islamic identity, triggered the demand for partition in 1940, which became a reality in 1947. The story on how starting with the 1937 Act, partition happened in just 10 years will appear tomorrow. Await the next part, The 1937 Act divided India. Will UCC integrate it?

Ministers rush to party office amid rejig buzz

Several prominent leaders visit party headquarters, hold parleys with J P Nadda

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

AMID speculations of a Cabinet reshuffle, many Union ministers are spending sleepless nights, apprehensive of being dropped from their ministries at a time when only nine months are left for the 2024 general election.

With over half a dozen Union ministers visiting the party central office here in the last two days, the buzz about organisational and ministerial reshuffle is growing louder. Several Union ministers and senior leaders, including Pralhad Patel, visited the party headquarters and met BJP president JP Nadda on Wednesday.

Sources said Sunil Jakhar, the newly appointed Punjab unit chief, was one of those who visited Nadda.

"The continuous visits of Union ministers and some senior leaders, including former railway minister Dinesh Trivedi, might be related to the upcoming monsoon session of Parliament. It is believed that they might have been hinted about the reshuffle," a senior party functionary said.

Civil Aviation minister Jyotiraditya Scindia too visited the party headquarters and met Nadda after being called in.

On Tuesday, several Union ministers, including Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, Law Minister Arjun Ram Meghawal, Environment and Forest Minister Bhupendra Yadav and Union minister Kiren Rijiju visited Nadda.

According to sources, they discussed the party's stand on several issues and also about the upcoming Lok Sabha election. Delhi political circles are abuzz with talks of Sitharaman contesting LS election from Madurai or any other safe seat in Tamil Nadu or another state in South India.

Party sources said Bhupendra Yadav may be engaged for organisational works in the coming days. Union minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat may get major organisational responsibility. He had met party general secretary (organisation) B L Santhosh. Another minister, S P S Baghel, also met the party president.

The saffron party remained tight-lipped on what transpired in the meetings. Sources, however, said that either the ministers would have been asked to prepare for elections leaving their ministries or they would have been briefed about the party's stand on several issues ahead of the monsoon session of the Parliament.

Speculation is rife that Minister of State for External Affairs and Parliamentary Affairs V Muraleedharan will be made the party chief in Kerala, considering his sound organisational skills and experience. The names of Shobha Karandlaje for Karnataka, Mansukh Mandaviya for Gujarat, Ram Vilas Sharma for Haryana and Narendra Singh Tomar or Pralhad Patel for Madhya Pradesh are also doing the rounds.

SC to hear pleas challenging repeal of Art 370 in August

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court is likely to commence hearing of a batch of pleas, challenging the Centre's decision of abrogating Article 370 of the Constitution that granted special status to the state of Jammu and Kashmir, from August.

Although the case has been listed before the five-judge constitution bench of Chief Justice of India (CJI) DY Chandrachud, Justices SK Kaul, Sanjiv Khanna, BR Gavai and Surya Kant for July 11, the same is listed for "directions".

The revelation regarding the commencement of hearing was made by Justice BR Gavai while hearing a plea filed by social activist Teesta Setalvad. When senior advocate Kapil Sibal suggested hearing Setalvad's plea in August, Justice Gavai said, "It will be too late because we will begin hearing the challenge against Article 370."

Sibal said he thought it was going to begin on July 11. Clarifying, Justice Gavai said that the pleas have been listed on July 11 only for directions. "That is only for directions. Tentatively, we will be starting in August," Justice Gavai said.

The pleas were filed in the wake of the amendments praying for declaring the Presidential Order issued under Article 370, repealing the special status of Jammu and Kashmir, and the J&K (Reorganisation) Act, 2019 as "unconstitutional".

The petitions also challenged the Centre's "unilateral" move unravelling the unique federal structure of India by dividing J&K "without taking consent from people". Questioning the Centre's move, under cover of President's rule with the view to undermine crucial elements of due process and the rule of law, the pleas stated what happened to Jammu and Kashmir "goes to the heart of Indian federalism".

It was also argued that the Presidential Order of August 5 substituted the concurrence of the Governor of the sate to change the very character of a federal unit.

The pleas were last listed on March 2, 2020, when the constitution bench had held that there was no need to refer the matter to a larger bench.

The hearing had commenced on December 10, 2019 — four months after the repeal of the Jammu and Kashmir special status — before a Constitution Bench comprising Justices N V Ramana (now retired), SK Kaul, R Subhash Reddy (now retired), B R Gavai and Surya Kant.

Judges recuse from hearing river dispute

Supreme Court judges Justices AS Bopanna and MM Sundresh recused from considering the case related to Tamil Nadu and Karnataka Penniyar river dispute on Wednesday. While Justice Bopanna hails from Karnataka, Justice Sundresh hails from Tamil Nadu. "This cannot be heard by us. Both of us would start fighting. He (Justice Sundresh) is saying let Pennaiyar Water Dispute Tribunal be constituted. I am saying no. All the water that goes to them is from my district. The birthplace of Cauvery is my district," Justice Bopanna, the presiding judge of the bench, said on a lighter vein when the matter was called for hearing. Tamil Nadu filed the suit in 2018 seeking a permanent injunction on the project.

Personal Data Protection bill gets Cabinet nod

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE Union Cabinet on Wednesday approved the draft of the Digital Personal Data Protection (DPDP) Bill 2023, which will be tabled in the upcoming monsoon session of Parliament.

According to official sources, the Central government had sought feedback from the public and received as many as 21,666 responses. The sources added that valuable suggestions were received from government agencies, private entities, members of civil society, law firms, journalists and others.

"The idea was to have maximum consultation, and we have considered all suggestions seriously," said an official.

According to the government, the purpose of the proposed bill is to govern and safeguard the use of personal data of citizens. It mandates that the collection and usage of personal data should be lawful, protected from breach, and have transparency.

It says collection of data should be for a legal purpose and that the data should be safely stored till the purpose is served. In case of data breach, it should be reported in a fair, transparent, and equitable manner to the Data Protection Board, a Central government-appointed body.

The bill also proposes exemptions. For instance, the government can collect and keep data on grounds of national security, law and order etc.

If disputes arise, the Data Protection Board will decide on them. The bill will also have an alternative dispute resolution mechanism under which a complaint can be resolved by mediation or other process of dispute resolution.

The Data Protection Bill was first drafted in November 2022. Since then, it has gone through several rounds of public discussion. The bill also has the option of voluntary undertaking by the 'guilty' party. If the board accepts the voluntary undertaking in any matter related to non-compliance, then the party would be exonerated for its failure to comply with some provisions of the law.

Vatsalya scheme to give education, foster care to orphans

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @New Delhi

ORPHANS, street children and kids in difficult situations will now be provided financial support, education, foster care and rehabilitation, said an official from the Ministry of Women and Child Development on Wednesday.

The Child Welfare and Protection Committee (CWC), under the Ministry of Women and Child Development, has been tasked with identifying children in need of support, the official said.

The beneficiaries are being assisted with sponsorship, foster care and adoption under theministry's Mission Vatsalya Scheme, which aims to provide child protection and development aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals.

"Sponsorship facilities will be provided to these children recommended by the CWC and approved by the Sponsorship and Foster Care Approval Committee," the official said, adding that "states and Union Territories will be requested to extend sponsorship facilities to the eligible children."

Under the sponsorship programme, the children will be supported through different modes of non-institutional care, which includes two types of financial assistances, the official explained.

While one will be government-aided sponsorship, the second will be private.

"Financial assistance may be extended to vulnerable children living with extended families or biological relatives for supporting their educational, nutritional and health needs," the official said.

Child support

Financial assistance may be extended to vulnerable children living with extended families or biological relatives for supporting their educational, nutritional and health needs. In foster care, the child's responsibility will be undertaken by an unrelated family, in which case, support will be provided to biologically unrelated foster parents for nurturing the child, said officials in the Ministry of Women and Child Development.

In foster care, the child's responsibility will be undertaken by an unrelated family. In this case, financial support will be provided to biologically unrelated foster parents for nurturing the child, the official added. Also, arrangements will be made to ensure these legally free children are adopted. "Specialised Adoption Agencies will facilitate the adoption programme," the official said.

Moreover, aftercare arrangements will also be made for these children. The children who are leaving a child care institution on completion of 18 years of age may be provided with financial support to facilitate the child's re-integration into the society.

Such support may be given for children aged between 18 and 21 years. However, this age limit can be raised up to 23 years in a bid to help the child become self-dependent, added the official.

Congress takes yet another shot at solving the lingering Rajasthan rift ■ BJP intensifies attempts to revitalise party in Chhattisgarh

Pilot main focus in Cong huddle called by Kharge

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

> The final role to be given to Sachin Pilot could be decided in the meeting. The buzz is Pilot may either be made state party president or head of the campaign committee
>
> Sources

'Pacifying Pilot'

A senior party insider said that the Congress leadership intends to refrain from making significant decisions regarding the CM's position. The primary focus now lies in appeasing Sachin Pilot.

THURSDAY could be a crucial day for Rajasthan Congress that faces a rift between CM Ashok Gehlot and his former deputy Sachin Pilot.

Congress chief Mallikarjun Kharge has called a meeting in Delhi where most of important leaders of the Rajasthan Congress, including CM Gehlot, Pilot, PCC chief GS Dotasra and state party in-charge Sukhjinder Singh Randhawa have been invited.

The final role and position to be given to Sachin Pilot could be decided in the meeting, party sources said. The buzz is that Pilot may either be made state party president or the head of the campaign committee. While the Congress leadership has repeatedly asked Pilot to come to Delhi and become the AICC general secretary, he has refused to take that offer. In contrast, the Gehlot camp has resisted all efforts to make Pilot the state party chief or a deputy CM.

The Congress wants to project unity in the state party in the run-up to the Assembly polls. Therefore, the aim of the party is to arrange a détente between the two in the tussle.

It remains uncertain whether Gehlot, who recently sustained a leg injury, will be able to attend the meeting.

A senior party insider revealed that the Congress high command intends to refrain from making significant decisions regarding the Chief Minister's position until the elections are completed. The primary focus now lies in appeasing Sachin Pilot.

Some experts suggest that the high command may want Pilot to be the party's general secretary, which aligns with the Gehlot camp's aspirations.

However, Pilot has made it clear that he is ready to work on the ground in Rajasthan without seeking any formal position.

Many contend that the high command could persuade Pilot to resume the role of Deputy Chief Minister. Yet, this proposition encounters a major obstacle as such an appointment would necessitate a significant reshuffling of the entire cabinet, a move deemed impractical merely five months before the code of conduct comes into force.

Simultaneously, some experts believe that Pilot could be entrusted with the responsibility of the state party president again. However, Gehlot remains reluctant.

Shah in Raipur to sharpen BJP Assembly poll plans

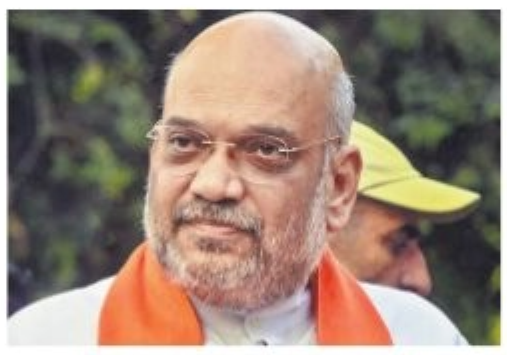
Closed-door meetings

Shah chaired a series of meetings to chalk out a strategy to return to power. He sought feedback on the accomplishments in each assembly seat. He also scrutinised the party's proposed plan of actions



UNION home minister Amit Shah visited the Chhattisgarh capital on Wednesday late evening, two days before the scheduled trip of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, creating a buzz that the central leadership is taking over the command of BJP in the poll-bound state.

On arrival, Shah moved straight to Kushabhau Thakre Parisar, the party headquarters in the state, where he met the senior party leaders and office bearers who were asked to attend the crucial meeting.

According to the BJP leaders close to the development, Shah chaired a series of closed-door meetings to chalk out a strategy to return to power. He sought feedback on the party's accomplishments at each assembly.

He also sought views on how to step up attack on ruling Congress. Besides wanting to bury the reported differences among the party leaders ahead of the polls. The media was not allowed inside the party premises. Shah interacted with the state party in-charge Om Mathur, co-in-charge Nitin Nabin, regional organisation general secretary Ajay Jamwal and the state president Arun Sao.

The Union minister scrutinised the party's proposed plan of actions with the senior leaders and the core group. The deliberations were also held on the reports of various surveys that he evaluated. According to party leaders, Shah held review meetings with the party leaders engaged in the organisational activities till late night. He will return to Delhi on Thursday morning and is likely to hold more meetings.

Though Shah's visit, the fourth this year, though is not related to the programme of the Prime Minister, who will be in Chhattisgarh after four years and a half on Friday, he took stock of the arrangement and preparations by the party for it. After his in-depth analysis and review meetings in Raipur, Shah is expected to share the feedback with the PM later.

The Congress cited the visits by Shah and Modi to Chhattisgarh not going to create any impact on the choices of the people against them. "Despite the BJP having nine out of the 11 LS members the Centre treats state in a step-motherly way," alleged Mohan Markam, state Congress president.

Suspense over state BJP president post

Gujarat's hottest talking point, perhaps more than the upcoming Rajya Sabha elections, is state BJP president CR Patil. The three-year tenure of Patil expires in July. Under Patil's leadership, the party has won 156 seats in assembly polls. So, the question now is whether he will be retained as the state BJP president or called to Delhi. The suspense grew when the BJP on Monday named the state presidents of four states but delayed announcement on Gujarat. According to sources, there is a possibility of a Union cabinet reshuffle around July 9 and therefore Patil's next role may become clearer only after July 9.

Congress adopts K'taka formula in Guj

After its spectacular victory in Karnataka, the Congress intends to adopt a similar strategy to corner the BJP in Gujarat. Similar to its allegations that the previous BJP government in Karnataka was a '40% commission' administration, the Gujarat Congress has begun a campaign against the BJP in the state. Congress leader Amit Chavda questioned the quality of two bridges: one in Vyara, which collapsed, and another in Ahmedabad. "Any government tender is approved after a 40% commission is paid to 'Kamalam' (BJP office in Gujarat)," he said.

2 ministers to lose seat in cabinet expansion

According to discussions in Gujarat's political circles, two of the seven ministers from Gujarat in the Central government may be ousted in the upcoming Union cabinet expansion that is expected on July 9. They could be replaced by two new faces. Gujarat now has four cabinet-level and three state-level central ministers in the Centre, including Home Minister Amit Shah, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar, Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya and Animal Husbandry Minister Purushottam Rupala. Sources said any two of Gujarat's Union State Ministers could be dropped in the next expansion. They include Dr. Mahendra Munjpara.

10 convicts get 10 yrs in jail in Tabrez Ansari lynching case

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

FINALLY after four years of the alleged lynching of Tabrez Ansari, Jharkhand's Saraikela Court on Wednesday pronounced 10 year jail to all 10 convicts in the case. Earlier on June 27, ten out of a total of 13 accused persons were held guilty by the court of Additional Session Judge Amit Shekhar under section 304 of IPC.

According to the prosecution lawyer, the court has also imposed a fine of ₹15,000 to each convict failing which they will have to undergo additional imprisonment of one month.

Advocate Altaf Hussain representing Tabrez Ansari's wife Shahista Parveen, however, said that they are not satisfied with the punishment and will appeal in the High Court to get it converted into life imprisonment. While the court pronounced the sentence, Parveen and other relatives were present there.

The 24-year-old Ansari was thrashed for several hours after being tied with a pole and forced to chant 'Jai Shri Ram' and 'Jai Bajrang Bali' on June 18, 2019 on suspicion of stealing a motorcycle with two others.

Ajit blames uncle for insulting him, denying Maha top post

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar with his party colleagues Praful Patel, Sunil Tatkare and others at a meeting in Mumbai on Wednesday | PTI

THE Maharashtra NCP coup is complete and comprehensive. Sworn in Deputy Chief Minister just the other day, Ajit Pawar on Wednesday hit out at Sharad Pawar, saying his uncle wants to remain the party chief because he wants his daughter Supriya Sule to be the CM.

He also said he was "insulted" several times in the past on the question of siding with either Shiv Sena or BJP. The new entrant to the Shinde-Fadnavis team opened up at the Bhujbal Knowledge city at Bandra West on Wednesday.

"I have been deputy CM. We could have got the chief minister's post, but my uncle refused it," he said.

"I am fed up with the DCM post. My son asks: 'Papa how many times will you will be DCM?'" said Ajit.

He said Sharad Pawar, 83, should gracefully retire from active politics and hand over the command to his nephew. Out of 53 NCP MLAs, 31 MLAs attended the meeting called by Ajit Pawar at Bandra.

On the other hand, NCP chief Sharad Pawar said since the day he attended the Opposition meeting in Patna, he suspected that the BJP would split his family and the party. "I will again go to the people," he said.

The Sr Pawar's speech was a veritable counter to Ajit Pawar's allegations. On why he did not tie up with BJP and formed the government with Shiv Sena, Pawar said Shiv Sena's Hindutva "is inclusive and takes all castes and communities together. "It is not like BJP's 'myopic Hindutva' dividing the people on the lines of caste and religion," he said.

But Ajit Pawar was unrelenting. "We were in talks with the BJP in 2014, 2016 and 2019. I was sent to talk with BJP; we finalized the distributions of cabinet portfolios. But his uncle changed his mind at the last moment. Due to this, I was humiliated and seen as a villain," said Ajit.

"If we can share power with Shiv Sena, then why not with the BJP?" asked Ajit. On his part, Sharad Pawar said the Ajit faction has criticized him but has retained Sr Pawar's posters and banners.

"They know they have no worth in the political market and will not fetch the votes. Therefore, they want to use my photograph. But people are shrewd enough to understand these things," said senior Pawar.

Class XI student killed ahead of Bengal rural polls, toll reaches 15

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

Blame game continues

TMC supporter Mohammad Selim Mondal said the attack was carried out jointly by CPM and ISF. Meanwhile, Leader of Opposition Suvendu Adhikari held CM Mamata Banerjee and State Election Commissioner Rajeeva Sinha responsible for the student's death.

AMID continuing violence before the panchayat elections on July 8, a Class XI student was killed in a deadly attack late on Tuesday night at Deganga in North 24-Parganas, taking the death toll to 15 in past 26 days, since the date for the rural poll was announced.

According to police, the incident took place when Imran Hasan (17), the deceased, was returning home with his father from a rally organised by the Trinamool Congress. It was alleged that the supporters of CPI(M) and Indian Secular Force (ISF), the outfit which was floated before the 2021 Assembly elections by an influential Muslim cleric, allegedly hurled bombs at the TMC supporters.

Sources in the TMC said the attack took place at Sopaisekhpur village when Hasan, after the procession, was returning from a workers' meet. "When we were passing in front of a house owned by a leader of the ISF, bombs were hurled from the rooftop of the two-storey building. We dispersed and shortly after, we found Hasan lying on the ground. A bomb hit his chest and exploded. Doctors declared him dead on arrival," said TMC supporter Mohammad Selim Mondal.

Mondal alleged the attack was carried out jointly by the CPI(M) and ISF.

Hasan's family alleged the attackers also opened fire but police did not corroborate the claim. Leader of Opposition and BJP MLA Suvendu Adhikari held CM Mamata Banerjee and State Election Commissioner Rajeeva Sinha responsible for the student's death.

Refuting the allegation, an ISF leader in Deganga said none of its activists was involved in the attack.

NEP 2020

LEARN 'N' HAVE FUN IS NCERT'S MANTRA FOR CLASSES 1, 2

KAVITA BAJELI DATT @ New Delhi

WITH the aim of making studying enjoyable for students, the National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT) has released new books for Class 1 and 2 with a special focus on play and interactive approach to learning.

From now on, students of Class 1 and 2 will study Hindi from 'Sarangi', English from 'Mridang' and Maths from 'Joyful Mathematics.' These textbooks, released on Wednesday by Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan, are based on the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020.

The books would be soon be translated into other Indian languages and made available on the NCERT website.

"These new generation textbooks have been developed based on the NEP-2020 and National Curriculum Framework for Foundational Stage (NCF-FS) 2022. Play is in the core of these textbooks, which will motivate children to learn with interest and joy," Pradhan said at the 58th meeting of the General Council of NCERT, where the books were released.

Earlier, there were two English books. Now, there is only one. The maths books for Hindi medium have been named 'Anadmay-Ganit.'

"These will be helpful in the holistic development of children and ensure joyful learning at the foundational stage, as envisaged by NEP-2020," Pradhan added.

The new generation textbooks in Hindi, English and Maths for Classes 1 and 2 were the first to be rolled out based on NCF-FS-22. Books from Class 3 to 12 will be rolled out in the next academic session.

Dinesh P Saklani, director of the National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT), said that with the release of Class-I and 2 books, the work of issuing text material for five classes of foundation level under NEP has been completed.

Guj town offers sops to root out plastic waste

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

MAHUA municipality in Bhavnagar, Gujarat, has launched a one-of-a-kind initiative to make the town plastic-free. By dumping plastic bags, milk, and buttermilk packages, citizens can earn money and incentives. They can earn ₹10 for every kg of plastic, and ₹23 for every kilogramme of plastic bottles. Additionally, a kilogramme of plastic can also be traded for two kilogrammes of manure. The municipality has established fourteen plastic collection centres spread across nine wards, where residents may actively discard their plastic waste.

The municipality has also developed a recycling factory with the help of private industry to recycle the gathered plastic garbage. Rajiben Vankar, president of Sakhi Mandal, is leading a drive to rid villages of plastic garbage in conjunction with 60 other females.

Govt to rebuild 984 buildings in Joshimath as cracks widen further

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

Uninhabitable buildings are classified as red and will be demolished | EXPRESS

DURING part of the state government's ongoing efforts to assess the risk after the land disaster in Joshimath, 984 buildings with cracks have been identified so far. All these buildings have been kept in the 'Yellow Category'.

The government has started the process of selecting the company for this work and retrofitting (the process of making it habitable again) them.

"A four-member committee has also been constituted at the level of Secretary Disaster Management, Dr. Ranjeet Kumar Sinha", an official spokesperson told this daily.

The land sinking in Joshimath began in early January this year. Since then, this process continued for several days. "There are still reports of cracks in the buildings, for which the reconstruction work at Joshimath will be started after the rainy season", the spokesperson said.

The Post Disaster Need Assessment (PDNA) report was prepared by the National Disaster Management Authority for reconstruction in Joshimath. In that report, the damage to all the buildings was assessed and the damaged buildings were divided into different categories.

"The buildings which are uninhabitable have been classified as red and will be demolished, while those damaged buildings which will be retrofitted have been categorised as yellow," the disaster management spokesperson said.

Demarcation based on damages

The PDNA report assessed damaged buildings and divided them into different categories. Buildings that are uninhabitable have been classified as red and will be demolished. Those damaged buildings which will be retrofitted have been categorised as yellow.

12 Palestinians dead as Israel ends two-day West Bank raid

JENIN

ISRAEL'S army on Wednesday declared the end of a large-scale military operation in the occupied West Bank that killed 12 Palestinians and one Israeli soldier over two days.

The raid, involving hundreds of forces, drone strikes and armoured bulldozers, targeted the northern West Bank city of Jenin, a centre for multiple armed Palestinian groups.

Thousands of Palestinian mourners joined a Jenin funeral procession for those killed, where militants fired gunshots into the air and the crowd chanted "With our souls and blood, we will sacrifice for you, martyr!"

Amid the days of violence, a Palestinian attacker in Tel Aviv on Tuesday wounded seven Israelis in a car ramming and stabbing attack before an armed civilian shot him dead.

And overnight, Israel carried out air strikes on targets inside the blockaded Gaza Strip in response to rocket fire from the Palestinian coastal enclave, with no deaths reported.

As the army pulled out of Jenin, much of the city's crowded refugee camp was left charred and in rubble from the incursion which displaced at least 3,000 residents. The camp, a small urban area home to about 18,000 people, has long been a stronghold of militant groups including Islamic Jihad and Hamas.

Among the dead Palestinians was 16-year-old Abdulrahman Hassan Ahmed Hardan, who was shot in the head by Israeli forces while unarmed on Tuesday, according to the non-government group Defence for Children International.

RUSSIA PLACING EXPLOSIVES INSIDE NUCLEAR PLANT: KYIV

Moscow rejects claim, accuses Kyiv of trying to sabotage the facility

KYIV

UKRAINE called on the international community on Wednesday to respond to what it said was Russia's military escalation at the Moscow-held Zaporizhzhia nuclear power plant, the centre of mounting tensions between Kyiv and Moscow.

Citing intelligence reports, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said Russian troops had placed "objects resembling explosives on the roof of several power units" of the nuclear power plant.

The objects could be used to "simulate" an attack, he said, meaning a false flag attack.

A statement from the General Staff of Ukraine's armed forces said the "foreign objects" were placed on the outer roof of the plant's third and fourth power units. "Their detonation should not damage power units but may create a picture of shelling from Ukraine," the Ukrainian statement said.

In Russia, Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov raised the spectre of a potentially 'catastrophic' provocation by the Ukrainian army at the nuclear plant, which is Europe's largest but has its six reactors shut down since the start of war.

"The situation is quite tense. There is a great threat of sabotage by the Kyiv regime, which can be catastrophic in its consequences," Peskov said in response to a reporter's question. He also claimed that Kremlin is taking "all measures" to counter the alleged Ukrainian threat. His comments came after Renat Karchaa, an advisor to Russian state nuclear company Rosenergoatom, said there was "no basis" for Zelenskyy's claims of a plot to simulate an explosion. The Ukrainian leader made the allegation in his nightly video address on Tuesday. "Why would we need explosives there? This is nonsense, (aimed at) maintaining tension around the Zaporizhzhia Nuclear Power Plant," Karchaa said.

Russian media on Tuesday cited Karchaa as saying that Ukraine's military planned to strike the plant with ammunition laced with nuclear waste early Wednesday. As of Wednesday afternoon, there was no indication of such an attack.

Ukraine has warned for months of Russian plans to cause a deliberate release of radiation from the plant, citing internal intelligence reports.

Ukrainian officials have alleged that Moscow might try to sabotage the plant in an attempt to derail Kyiv's ongoing counteroffensive in the surrounding region. Russia occupied the plant in the early stages of the war. Over the past year, Russia and Ukraine repeatedly accused each other of shelling the facility. AFP

IAEA demands more access to power plant

THE International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) on Wednesday called for additional access to the Russian-occupied Zaporizhzhia nuclear power plant in Ukraine to "confirm the absence of mines or explosives at the site". Ukraine and Russia have accused each other of planning a provocation at the site, raising alarm over risks of a radioactive disaster. "With military tension and activities increasing in the region where this major nuclear power plant is located, our experts must be able to verify the facts on the ground," IAEA head Rafael Grossi said in a statement. The IAEA experts' "independent and objective reporting would help clarify the current situation... which is crucial at a time like this with unconfirmed allegations and counter allegations", he said.

ENGLISH SKILLS

US to revamp citizenship test after 15 years

ST PAUL

THE US citizenship test is being updated, and some immigrants and advocates worry the changes will hurt test-takers with lower levels of English proficiency.

The naturalisation test is one of the final steps toward citizenship—a monthslong process that requires legal permanent residency for years before applying.

Many are still shaken after former President Donald Trump's administration changed the test in 2020, making it longer and more difficult to pass.

Within months, Democratic President Joe Biden took office and signed an executive order aimed at eliminating barriers to citizenship. In that spirit, the citizenship test was changed back to its previous version, which was last updated in 2008.

In December, US authorities said the test was due for an update after 15 years. The new version is expected late next year.

US Citizenship and Immigration Services proposes that the new test adds a speaking section to assess English skills. An officer would show photos of ordinary scenarios—like daily activities, weather or food— and ask the applicant to verbally describe the photos. AP

Pak PM accuses Imran of halting progress on CPEC

Islamabad: Pakistan Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif on Wednesday accused his predecessor Imran Khan of not only halting progress on the $60 billion China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) but also damaging ties with 'all-weather ally' China. "The CPEC is all about a story of hard work and untiring commitment between the leadership of Pakistan and China," he was quoted as saying by APP. Sharif, however, regretted that the previous government led by Imran Khan created misconceptions about the project which resulted in its slow implementation.

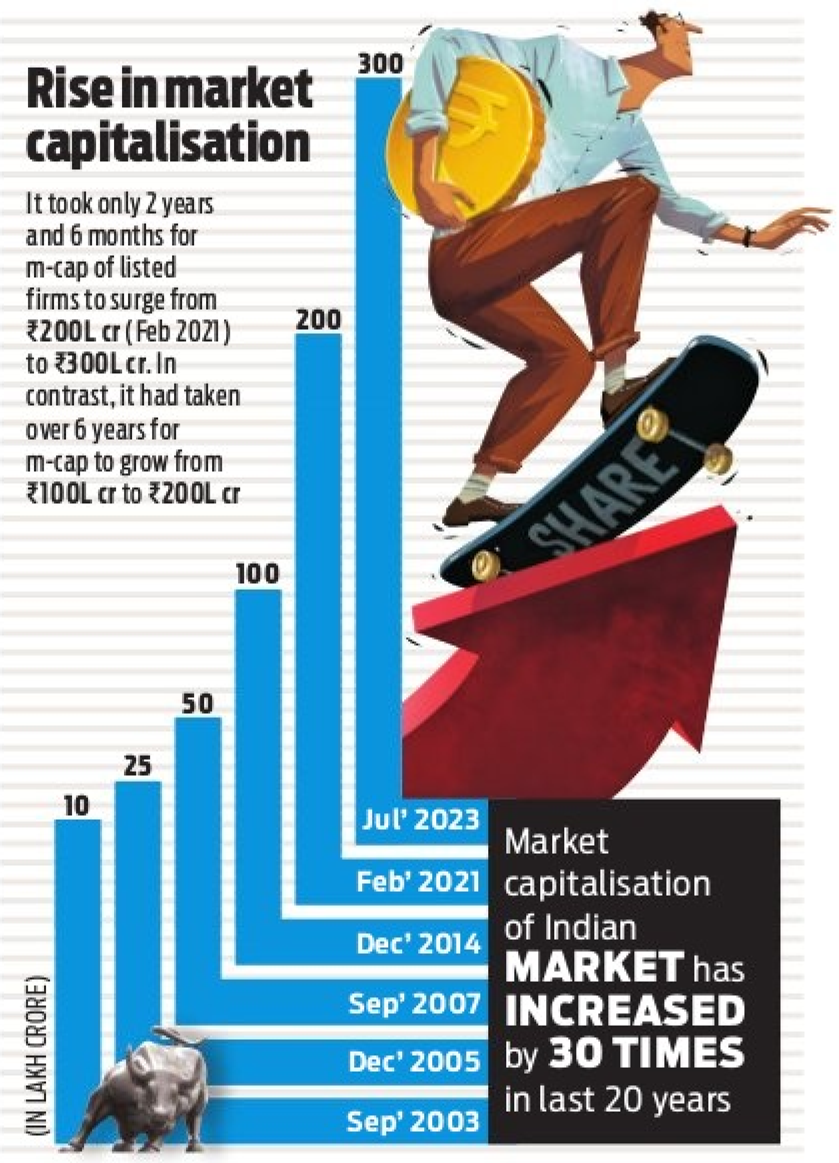
Market Cap of BSE-listed firms surpass ₹300 lakh crore mark



Market value is more than India's FY23 GDP and on a par with the FY24 GDP projection

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

FOR the first time ever, the combined market capitalisation (m-cap) of all the companies listed on the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) has crossed ₹300 lakh crore mark.

This milestone has come on the back of the strong rally, aided by huge money poured in by foreign institutional investors (FII). According to the exchange data, the combined m-cap of 5,261 BSE-listed firms stood at ₹30,012,769.24 crore by the end of Wednesday's trading session. The combined value of the top 10 companies was ₹7,894,840.04 crore.

Domestic equity market value is now more than its FY23 gross domestic product (GDP) and is on a par with the FY24 GDP projection. According to official data, the size of the Indian economy stood at about ₹273 lakh crore in FY23. The nominal GDP for 2023-24 is expected to be ₹301 lakh crore.

It took only two years and six months for the m-cap of listed companies to surge from ₹200 lakh (February 2021) to ₹300 lakh crore. In contrast, it had taken over six years for the m-cap to grow from ₹100 lakh crore to ₹200 lakh crore. The milestone of ₹100 lakh crore m-cap was first achieved in December 2014.

According to Bloomberg data, total market capitalisation (both in rupee and dollar terms) of all listed firms on the BSE rose 18.5% from March 28 till date. So far in 2023, it gained nearly 6.6%. Equity benchmarks- BSE Sensex and NSE Nifty have surged about 13% each since March 28. The broader indices -- BSE MidCap and BSE SmallCap – have grown at a much faster pace of 23% each between March 28 and now.

In dollar terms, India's market value is pegged at $3.6 trillion, making it the fifth-largest global equity market in the world. However, India's share of the total world market cap is just 3.3%.

The US market occupies the top spot with over 44% share, followed by China, Japan and Hong Kong.

HC allows Go First lessors to carry out plane maintenance

JAISON WILSON @New Delhi

THE Delhi High Court on Wednesday allowed lessors of crisis-stricken airline Go First to carry out inspection and interim maintenance works of their aircraft, twice a month.

The high court was hearing lessors' petitions for deregistration of the planes by the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA), in order to get them back.

Justice Tara Vitasta Ganju said, "There can be no denial of the fact that the aircraft of the petitioners are extremely valuable equipment which requires regular maintenance."

The interim permission for inspection of aircraft will be applicable until the final disposal of the group of pleas while the respondents including Go First, or their representative as appointed by the NCLT were restrained by the court.

The court held that the respondents (airline and or its representative) is "restrained from removing, replacing, taking out any part or component etc or any relevant operational or other manual records, documentation from any of 30 aircraft except with prior written approval of lessor of such aircraft."

Permission applicable until disposal of pleas

Interim permission for inspection of aircraft will be applicable until the final disposal of the group of pleas while the respondents including Go First, or their representative as appointed by the NCLT were restrained by the court. Lessors approached the court after the airline moved NCLT, Delhi, to initiate corporate insolvency resolution process

The petitioners in the case include Pembroke Aircraft Leasing 11, Eos Aviation 12 (Ireland), DAE SY 13 Ireland, SFV Aircraft Holdings Ire 9 DAC Limited, Accipiter Investments Aircraft 2, ACG Aircraft leasing Ireland Limited, GY Aviation Lease 1722 Co Limited, and SMBC Aviation Capital.

Those who leased out their planes to Go First approached the court after the crisis-hit airline moved the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT), Delhi, to initiate corporate insolvency resolution process. The lessors before the Delhi High court was arguing that the airline has no rights over planes as the leases have been terminated. Go First stopped operations from May 3, and has now suspended flights till at least July 10.

As per the airline's plea before NCLT, it initiated emergency arbitration proceedings against Pratt & Whitney in April 2020 and already paid ₹19,980 crore to its creditors, out of which ₹5,400 crore was paid to the lessors in the last two years towards the lease rent and maintenance reserve despite 40% to 50% of the fleet not operational. The airline also claimed it has exhausted all financial resources.

Start-up fund raising down 72% in first half of 2023

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Bengaluru

THE Indian start-up ecosystem faced a challenging first half of 2023 as the total funding- $5.5 billion- declined by over 72% compared to H1 2022. Start-ups had raised $19.7 billion in H12022.

While there were no new unicorns in first six months, the period saw 74 acquisitions, as per a report from SaaS-based market intelligence platform Tracxn. While still ranking among the top three funded geographies globally after the US and the UK, the region's funding trend mirrored declining trend witnessed across the world. The total funding in H1 2023 declined by 24% compared to H2 2022 - $7.3 billion. The number of funding rounds also experienced a substantial decrease in H1 2023 (536), with a drop of 43% compared to H2 2022 (946) and 66% compared to H1 2022 (1586), the report said.

Neha Singh, co-founder, Tracxn, said, "As per our latest semi-annual India tech report, despite India being one of the top-performing countries across globe with respect to funding in private sector, it is facing a deceleration in funding due to inflation and other macroeconomic factors."

"India still continues to be one of the fastest-growing economies. India's start-up ecosystem ranked third in terms of funding in 2022, and it moved up to second in Q1 2023, and there is a tremendous amount of growth potential," she added.

RBI panel suggests steps for ₹ 'internationalisation'

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

A Reserve Bank of India (RBI) panel has proposed permitting non-residents to open rupee accounts, waiver of withholding tax for Masala bonds and creating a five-day round-the-clock global rupee market among some of the measures for internationalisation of rupee.

The panel has recommended inclusion of Indian government bonds in global bond indices and expansion of RTGS (Real Time Gross Settlement) system for settling international transactions to increase acceptance of Indian currency, globally.

The recommendations, including several short-term and long-term measures, have come at a time when India is trying to promote rupee to settle transactions with its trade partners. The Inter-Departmental Group (IDG), formed in 2021 and headed by RBI executive director R S Ratho, has recommended efforts should be made for inclusion of rupee in IMF's Special Drawing Rights (SDR) basket.

"The IDG feels that over the long term, India will achieve higher level of trade linkages with other countries and improved macro-economic parameters, and INR (Indian Rupee) may ascend to a level where it would be widely used and preferred by other economies as a 'vehicle currency'. The IDG recommends in the long run efforts should be made for inclusion of INR in IMF's SDR basket," noted the report. SDR is an international reserve asset created by IMF to supplement official reserves of its member countries.

"IDG feels INR has potential to become global currency as India is one of the fastest growing nations and has shown resilience even in the face of headwinds," said the report.

In its short-term measures, the panel said, there is a need to design a template and adopt a standardised approach for examining the proposals on bilateral and multilateral trade arrangements for invoicing, settlement and payment in INR and encourage opening of INR accounts for non-residents (other than nostro accounts of overseas banks) both in India and outside India.

Govt push to boost trade in Indian rupee

- Encourage opening of rupee accounts for non-residents in India and outside
- Integrate payment systems with other countries for cross-border transactions
- Foster a five-day round-the-clock global rupee market
- Review taxes on bonds issued outside India but denominated in rupees, also known as masala bonds
- Enable rupee as an additional settlement currency in multilateral mechanisms such as Asian Clearing Union

Pharmeasy to raise 2K cr; valuation drops below $1 bn

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

PHARMACY chain Pharmeasy will raise over ₹2,000 crore at a valuation of $500-$600 million, a significant drop from its valuation of $5.6 billion in 2021. Manipal Group will invest 50% of the total funding, sources told this newspaper.

The announcement will be made official next week. Sources also said the company is in talks with two-three more shareholders and the actual amount of fundraising, valuation and investors will be confirmed in a few days. Pharmeasy is an API Holdings-owned omnichannel pharmacy chain. As per reports, Manipal Group's family office might become the company's single largest shareholder after its investment in Pharmeasy.

Earlier this year, US investment firm Neuberger Berman cut its valuation to $4.4 billion. In November last year, API Holdings had withdrawn its draft red herring prospectus due to volatile market conditions. Though the health tech start-ups had seen exponential growth during Covid period, many start-ups are now facing harsh funding winter. It has struggled to find investors in past few quarters and if the funding round materialises, it will see its valuation plummet to $500 million-$600 million.

RBI asks banks to issue cards on multiple networks

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Wednesday asked banks and non-bank financial companies (NBFCs) to issue debit, credit and prepaid cards on more than one card-networks such as Rupay, Visa, Mastercard, American Express.

This gives customers more options to choose and closes door for any exclusive tie-ups between banks and card networks. "On a review, it is observed that arrangements existing between card networks and card issuers (banks and non-banks) are not conducive to the availability of choice for customers," the Reserve Bank said in a draft circular seeking comments. "Card issuers shall not enter into any arrangement or agreement with card networks that restrain them from availing the services of other card networks," it said.

The proposed rules will come into effect from October 1. A card network is an entity that facilitates payment card transactions. Authorised card networks in India are American Express Banking, Diners Club International, MasterCard Asia/ Pacific, National Payments Corporation of India – RuPay, and Visa Worldwide.

RBI said card issuers and card networks should ensure adherence to existing agreements at the time of amendment or renewal.

Suzuki to invest ₹2.8 lakh crore by FY31 as it aims to double turnover

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

MARUTI SUZUKI (MSIL), country's largest carmaker, on Wednesday, said its Japanese parent company Suzuki Motor has plans to invest ₹2.8 lakh crore by FY31 as it aims to double its global turnover.

This fresh investment is aimed at new launches and expansions in which one of Suzuki's biggest markets, India, will play a big role.

Besides that, MSIL is expecting to become the top sports utility vehicle (SUV) player in the country in next few quarters as the company said its new launches -- Grand Vitara, Jimny and Fronx -- are in high demand. "Suzuki has planned investment of ₹2.8 lakh crore by FY31 towards enriching products, bringing new technologies and setting up new facilities. India will play a big role in this goal. It targets to achieve a global turnover of ₹4.32 lakh crore in FY31, double the turnover of ₹2.16 lakh crore achieved in FY22," Hisashi Takeuchi, managing director and chief executive officer, MSIL, said while launching the company most expensive offering - Invicto.

Takeuchi added that MSIL would also double its turnover by from ₹83,798 crore in FY22 to ₹1.68 lakh crore by FY31 in line with the parent company's global growth strategy.

Meanwhile, shares of Maruti Suzuki crossed the ₹10,000 mark for the first since 2017. The stock ended 3.61% higher at ₹9994.50 and its market capitalisation past the ₹3 lakh crore mark. Takeuchi said the investment by Suzuki is towards enriching products, bringing new technologies and setting up new facilities.

ACQUISITION

SBI to acquire SBICAPS stake in SVL

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

COUNTRY'S largest lender State Bank of India (SBI) will acquire 100% stake of SBI Capital in SBI Cap Ventures for ₹708 crore.

The Executive Committee of the Central Board (ECCB) of the bank approved acquisition of the entire stake held by SBI Capital Markets in SBICAP Ventures Ltd (SVL), said the lender.

"The Executive Committee of the Central Board of the Bank has accorded approval for acquiring the entire stake held by SBICAPS in SVL by SBI, subject to receipt of all regulatory approvals," said SBI in a regulatory filing to the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE).

The acquisition is subject to receipt of all regulatory approvals and is being done for better governance, said the lender.

SVL will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of SBI after the acquisition.

SVL was incorporated as a wholly owned subsidiary of SBICAPS on November 10, 2005, with the objective to carry on the business of asset management, and investment management advisors and to set up, assist in setting up, providing, and/or participate in providing venture capital, technology funds or any other funds for seed capital, risk capital foundation, loans, etc.

SBICAP Ventures' asset under management (AUM) stood at ₹33,054 crore in FY23, compared to ₹26,811 crore in FY22.

Dingley 1st female boss of English pro men's side

League Two side Forest Green Rovers have become England's first professional men's football team to be managed by a woman after appointing Hannah Dingley as new caretaker boss. Rovers sacked former Everton striker Duncan Ferguson as manager on Tuesday, and later announced that its academy head Dingley would take interim charge.

BLEAK FUTURE BEYOND THE DREAMS

While one of Netherlands and Scotland are set to book their ticket to India for the marquee global event, the next four-year ODI World Cup cycle gives very little hope for them and other associate members

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@Chennai

ON Thursday morning, Netherlands and Scotland will walk into Bulawayo continuing to dream of a place in cricket's highest table — a place in the 10-team winter World Cup in India. On Thursday night, for one of those teams, that dream will see the light of day. For the other, the dream will have died a violent death.

While this sort of winner-takes-all battle adds a definite edge to the match-up, it could easily have been avoided had the International Cricket Council (ICC) decided to expand the World Cup to 14 teams from this edition (the 2027 installment will have 14). But the ICC — one of the very few global sporting bodies who have preferred to ringfence its biggest property — have continued to opt for minimalism over expansion. Considering that is the case, it's remarkable that one of Netherlands or Scotland will fly the flag for the Associates (a welcome return considering there were none in 2019 when the ICC reduced it to a 10-team event to suit the interests of a few nations).

Netherlands play Scotland on Thursday. If they win by a good margin then they can secure a place in the ODI World Cup. (Inset) Scotland pacer Chris Barclay Sole shared a pic of his damaged spikes | ICC/TWITTER

During the World T20 in 2016, Scotland's then captain, Preston Mommsen, in one of the most brutal press conferences, lifted the lid on what it was to be a member of an Associate nation. "In general, it's tough to attribute our lack of getting over the line," he had said when speaking about the team's capacity to finish on the wrong side of close matches. "Since the 2015 World Cup, I have played one ODI... 12 months. So you tell me how I'm going to improve my skills and develop as a cricketer. Playing under pressure, being exposed to a higher level of skill... it all adds up. Every little percentage. Unfortunately that's just the way it is. I am not sure people realise the pressure. Every time you take the field, you are playing for funding. We don't have bilateral cricket. Associate cricket is about winning at all costs and unfortunately that's just the nature of the beast and it is a beast."

Seven years later, Scotland, who lost all six of their group games in 2015, are less than 24 hours away from the promised land. But they are children of a lesser God. Over the next four-year World Cup cycle, Scotland are not scheduled to play a single bilateral ODI against any Full Member nation. It's the same with Netherlands. Considering the approach ICC have taken towards the game, it's not a surprise that these two nations have been shunned in this manner by Full Members in the next Future Tours Program.

Separate FTP for associates on cards

The ICC is considering a separate Future Tours Programme for Associate Members having ODI status. They, however, haven't set a fixed timeframe to ratify this.

While people mourned the loss of West Indies, the bigger story continues to be the stepmotherly treatment being meted out to these teams. Sumod Damodar, one of the elected associate member representatives and a part of the 20-strong ICC Chief Executives Committee, says this (these two nations have no matches against FMs in the next FTP) could yet change but expressed his concern. "Because the ODI structures are set on a long-term basis with FMs automatically being in the fray, the fixtures are set much easier. However, due to the upwards and downwards movement of AMs based on the standing in the Cricket League & Challenge, the AMs do stand to lose out as such. However, with the new high performance framework being finalised, hopefully, that shortcoming can be overcome. It is important to attempt to get fixtures for AMs who qualify for a CWC, to play FMs ahead of the event and outside the warm-up matches just ahead of the CWC."

Forget the funding. For teams like Scotland, attention also has to be paid to repair basic equipment. On Wednesday, pacer Chris Barclay Sole, who picked up three wickets against Zimbabwe on Tuesday, raised a query on Twitter. He wanted his blasted spikes to be replaced 24 hours before a game that could decide how much money they have to play with in the next four years. "We knew there were going to be tough games and come to a stage where we would be in a must-win game," said their captain Richie Berrington after beating Zimbabwe. "We will take a lot of confidence but it's going to be a tough game."

The Netherlands are in a similar position. "The culture that we have built and the learnings we have taken through the last 18-19 months," was what Logan van Beek had said after the nail-eating win over West Indies. Now we have a chance to go to the World Cup in India and that is really huge." The stakes could not be higher. But it needn't have been like this.

Djokovic in Rd 3, happy return for Medvedev

AGENCIES @London

WORLD No 3 Daniil Medvedev marked his return to Wimbledon after last year's ban on Russian players with a first-round win on Wednesday. Medvedev defeated French-born British wild card Arthur Fery, ranked at 391 in straight sets, 7-5, 6-4, 6-3. World No 2 Novak Djokovic beat Australia's Jordan Thompson 6-3, 7-6 (4), 7-5 to enter the third round. This was his 350th Grand Slam match win.

In the women's section, top seed Iga Swiatek beat Sara Sorribes Tormo 6-2, 6-0 to cruise into the third round. The reigning US Open and French Open champion has never been beyond the fourth round.

Protesters disrupt match

Climate activists interrupted a match on one of Wimbledon's show courts, scattering orange confetti and jigsaw pieces in their latest protest targeting major sporting events. Two Just Stop Oil protesters ran onto Court 18 during the first-round match between 21st-seed Grigor Dimitrov and Japanese qualifier Sho Shimabukuro.

Aryan shatters fourth national record

HYDERABAD: Aryan Nehra ended the swimming nationals as he began - with a new national record and a gold medal around his neck, on Wednesday. The 19-year-old shattered yet another record, this time in the men's 400m medley on the final day of the National Aquatic Championships.

Firmino joins Saudi club after Liverpool exit

PARIS: Brazilian forward Roberto Firmino became the latest high-profile player to complete a move to Saudi Arabia, signing for Al-Ahli on Tuesday after his contract with Premier League giants Liverpool expired. The 31-year-old left Liverpool after eight seasons at Anfield, during which time he scored 111 goals.

Vidwath, Mavi steal show on opening day

AGENCIES @Bengaluru

DELHI all-rounder Harshit Rana showed his all-round prowess as North Zone finished the opening day of their Duleep Trophy semi-final against South Zone on even keel after being bowled out for a paltry 198. At stumps, South Zone were precariously placed at 63/4 with Mayank Agarwal batting on 37. Meanwhile, Central Zone bowlers led by captain Shivam Mavi (4/43) silenced the big guns in the West Zone to restrict them to 216/8 in Alur.

For North Zone, the day's hero was Delhi's 21-year-old fast bowling all-rounder Rana, whose quick-fire 31 off 22 balls, batting at No. 9 took North closer to 200-run target that seemed a distant reality after the seventh wicket fell at 123. Celebrating his maiden India U-23 call-up, Rana then bowled a brisk spell coming in one-change, first castling South skipper Hanuma Vihari (0) with sheer pace and then trapping Ricky Bhui (0) plumb in front off successive deliveries.

Vidwath Kaverappa

West Zone entered the match as overwhelming favourites, courtesy the presence of Cheteshwar Pujara, Suryakumar Yadav, Prithvi Shaw and Sarfaraz Khan in their line-up. It also might have been a reason for West to elect batting after winning the toss despite the largely overcast conditions at the KSCA Oval in Alur. But none of them fired as West would have desired. Shaw and captain Priyank Panchal started on a confident note, and they had the assistance of fortune as well. Shaw was given a life on 16 when Vivek Singh dropped him at first slip off pacer Yash Thakur.

However, left-arm spinner Saurabh Kumar, who bagged eight wickets in the quarterfinals against East Zone, jettisoned Shaw. The Mumbaikar's punch was grabbed at silly point by Dhruv Jorel after a short juggle, and Shaw had to depart rather unwillingly. The dismissal opened the flood gate as West lost wickets at regular intervals.

Brief scores: North Zone 198 in 58.3 ovs (Prabhsimran 49, Ankit 33; Kaverappa 5/28, Sasikanth 2/52) vs South Zone 63/4 in 17 ovs (Mayank 37 batting; Harshit 2/19, Baltej Singh 2/21); West Zone 216/8 in 90 ovs (Atit 74, Dharmendrasinh 39; Mavi 4/43) vs Central Zone.

Yashasvi, Tilak get maiden T20 call-up

GOMESH S @Chennai

'PROCESS' and 'intent' have been the first word of Indian cricket dictionary over the past decade. Now, they have been replaced by 'transition'. While for the Test team it seems to have started with the No 3 spot, the T20I team has been on one since the last global event in Australia. As has been the case, both Rohit Sharma and Virat Kohli are not included in the squad for what will be India's first T20I assignment after the Indian Premier League.

Tilak Varma

The bigger news, however, is that Yashasvi Jaiswal and Tilak Varma have earned their maiden India call-up for the five-match series against West Indies that is set to be played from August 3 to 13. While that was expected, both Shivam Mavi (part of the last T20I assignment)and Rinku Singh (who excelled for Kolkata in the IPL) not making the cut comes as a surprise.

Jaiswal, part of the squad that had gone to England for the WTC final, had a breakthrough year with Rajasthan Royals after a prolific red-ball season earned him his maiden Test call-up. Similarly, the southpaw from Hyderabad was one of the star performers for Mumbai Indians, helping them get to the play-offs. While it is yet to be seen whether Jaiswal starts in the playing XI with Ishan Kishan in the squad, it should not come as a surprise if Varma is infused into a packed middle-order that is likely to have skipper Hardik Pandya, his deputy for the tour, Suryakumar Yadav, Sanju Samson and Axar Patel.

SQUAD: Ishan (wk), Gill, Jaiswal, Tilak, Surya Kumar (vc), Samson (wk), Hardik (C), Axar, Chahal, Kuldeep, Bishnoi, Arshdeep, Umran, Avesh, Mukesh.

Currently playing for Central Zone in the Duleep Trophy semifinal, Mavi took four wickets on Day One to rattle the star-studded West Zone batting. Rinku, too, is a part of the same team and is expected to bat on Day Two for Central Zone. With no place in the T20I squad, the duo are expected to play in the final should Central Zone qualify for the same.

In the bowling department, leg-spinner Yuzvendra Chahal will lead the group of young pacers including Avesh Khan, Umran Malik, Mukesh Kumar, and Arshdeep Singh. Apart from Chahal, the squad will also have two wrist spinners in Kuldeep Yadav and Ravi Bishnoi. While the focus will be on the 50-over format until November, this T20I series followed by the one in Ireland which begins on August 18, will be the testing ground for the youngsters to make the transition into ODIs post the World Cup in India.

United hand Ronaldo's No 7 shirt to Mount

AGENCIES @Manchester

WEARING the iconic No 7 shirt adorned by Manchester United greats like Cristiano Ronaldo and David Beckham, Mason Mount became the club's first signing of the off-season on Wednesday. And upon completion of his 55 million pounds ($69 million) transfer from Chelsea, the 24-year-old midfielder declared his intention to emulate United's stars of the past.

"I am hugely ambitious; I know how amazing it feels to win major trophies and what it takes to do it," Mount said. "I will be giving everything to experience that again at Manchester United."

The No 7 has been worn by some of United's greatest players including 1960s icon George Best, Bryan Robson, who was dubbed 'Captain Marvel' in the 80s and 90s; and Eric Cantona, who inspired the start of the club's near 20-year dominance of English soccer in 90s and 2000s. Beckham and Ronaldo are global icons that have transcended the sport, as well as winning soccer's biggest prizes.

In other words, it is a big shirt to fill. Not that United thinks that will be a problem for a player who won the Champions League with Chelsea in 2021 and has established himself as an England regular. The No 7 shirt has been vacant since Ronaldo's second spell at United ended in acrimony last November.

Can Stokes' England rise from Ashes

England are 0-2 down, and the next five days could seal the fate of the series at Leeds. A look at key talking points...

ANOTHER TON FOR STEVE

Steve Smith crossing hundreds in Tests isn't a surprise anymore. He is 11th on the all-time list with 32 tons. This century, however, is special. For someone who debuted as a leggie 13 years ago, who took two years to make a comeback as a batter and went on to become the best in the world, playing 100 Test matches is a remarkable feat. For all we know, he might just score another ton and break into the top ten over the next five days.

HOSTILE LEEDS READY FOR OZ

Well, it was always going to be a hostile reception irrespective of the venue, but Headingly is the home ground of Jonny Bairstow. And that sums it up. It is where England bounced back thanks to a miracle innings from Ben Stokes in 2019. With crowd behind them, they would want to have a repeat of the same.

Playing XIs: England: Crawley, Duckett, Brook, Root, Bairstow, Stokes, Moeen, Woakes, Wood, Robinson, Broad; Australia (probable): Warner, Khawaja, Labuschagne, Smith, Head, Green, Carey, Cummins, Murphy, Hazlewood, Starc.

BAZBALL, BRING IT ON

From the outset, it feels like a month since The Ashes began, but we have had only ten days on the field. Such has been the intensity of the contest that after every game, you feel drained even as a spectator. However, Australia and England aren't. The visitors have the momentum and an unassailable lead, and England... well they have Bazball. And what better narrative is there than a comeback from 0-2 in a five-match series.

After being 'forced out of the sport' in 2021, Khade comes back in style

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@Chennai

A FEW days ago, Virdhawal Khade, one of India's most decorated swimmers, quietly put-together one of his fastest ever 50m butterfly races at an event, to qualify for what will be his fifth Asian Games. For somebody who was 'forced out of the sport because of circumstances in 2021', that's an impressive return. In an interview with this daily, the 31-year-old speaks about his second wind of his, his different training methodology in 2023 and more. Excerpts:

Q&A

■ On the last few days at Hyderabad

It has been very good. Preparing for the meet, I knew what the targets were. It all seemed very achievable to me. But the targets being achievable and it actually happening are two totally different things. I did whatever I could to make sure it happened. The 50 free needs some more work, I'm not quite where I would like it to be. I have enough time now to improve until the Asian Games.

Ace Indian swimmer Virdhawal Khade with his wife Rujuta | INSTAGRAM

■ On his 2023 and changes in training

It has been different. I'm a bit older so different priorities. I'm training in Mumbai only. This year, I have emphasised recovery and nutrition a lot, more than I have ever had in my career. It has really helped me to get in shape and become strong. With recovery... I feel I'm a whole lot older. So, not able to put in the same amount of hours. Higher intensity, lifting heavier weights in the gym. Recovery itself has been challenging, I need like a couple of massages every week. I need to see the physio often. With respect to nutrition, I try to stay true at least 80%. 100% is not possible because we all have our cravings. Luckily, the journey with Rujuta (Khade's partner, she broke a 20-year-old national record in the women's 50m free event the same night Khade punched his Asian Games ticket)... she has also been on the same path. It becomes a whole lot easier.

■ On mentoring the up and coming swimmers

I have been doing some work at the Gymkhana. That definitely has opened me up to different perspectives. No two people swim the same way and there are a lot of ways to swim fast. It has certainly helped me.

■ On if he ever considered himself semi-retired in 2021

I have never said that 'I'm retired'. Back then, I felt that I was forced out of the sport because of the circumstances when things were so uncertain before the Olympics. Mentally it was very challenging.

There was no said goal to work towards and you have to keep pushing. I'm the kind of person that cannot sustain myself like that. I need to have a goal in front of me to work hard.

Divine Destination UTTARAKHAND

HARNESSING THE STATE'S TOURISM POTENTIAL

"Under the able leadership of our Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, who holds a special place in his heart for Uttarakhand, we are determined to position the state as a leading tourism destination, offering diverse experiences to travellers from across the globe. Uttarakhand has received unprecedented support in the tourism sector, with various development projects like the All-Weather Road project, Char Dham Railway project, Delhi-Dehradun Expressway project, and other tourism initiatives. These projects aim to enhance accessibility, infrastructure, and overall tourism experience, ensuring that Uttarakhand's natural and cultural treasures are easily accessible to all. Together, let us embrace the opportunities that lie ahead and create a thriving tourism industry that not only boosts the state's economy but also showcases Uttarakhand's unparalleled beauty to the world."

Uttarakhand Tourism Policy 2030: Charting a transformative path for sustainable growth

Under Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Chief Minister Pushkar Dhami's capable leadership, Uttarakhand's tourism sector has blossomed into a thriving industry, witnessing substantial growth and captivating the hearts of travellers worldwide

PICS: DIPR, UTTARAKHAND

Nestled in the lap of the majestic Himalayas, Uttarakhand has long been revered as a land of spirituality and natural beauty. Now, with the unveiling of the Uttarakhand Tourism Policy 2030, the state is set to embark on a remarkable journey towards becoming a global tourism hub, offering diverse and authentic experiences. This visionary policy aims to not only harness the state's potential for tourism but also ensure sustainable growth.

The key philosophy driving the policy is the empowerment of all stakeholders involved in the tourism sector, enabling them to benefit from Uttarakhand's growth story. By streamlining the goals and interests of various stakeholders, the policy establishes a unifying framework that paves the way for tourism development.

Breaking away from the traditional image of Uttarakhand as a religious and wellness destination, the policy seeks to unleash the state's latent potential as a diversified tourist hotspot. Embracing a mix of heritage, religion, nature, wildlife, health, and wellness tourism, Uttarakhand aims to offer unforgettable experiences for every type of traveller. The policy also highlights the importance of promoting Uttarakhand as an all-weather destination, including winter and Alpine tourism, to attract visitors throughout the year.

Central to the policy is the creation of authentic and immersive tourism experiences. By leveraging the state's unique offerings, such as its cultural heritage and natural wonders, Uttarakhand aims to develop tourism clusters and circuits.

These initiatives will foster the growth of new tourism destinations, catering to various segments of tourists and providing unmatched experiences.

With a strong focus on sustainability, the policy recognizes the importance of preserving Uttarakhand's environmental and cultural assets. Efforts to preserve natural reserves, wildlife, and intangible heritage are integral to the state's tourism development. Additionally, the policy emphasizes the revival of lost natural and cultural assets, ensuring that Uttarakhand remains a safe and tourist-friendly destination for years to come.

In the digital age, Uttarakhand aims to meet the changing expectations of tourists. Leveraging technology, the policy prioritises reaching out to potential visitors in the comfort of their homes. This includes utilising online platforms for promotion, marketing, bookings, reservations, and information dissemination. By harnessing the power of digital tools, Uttarakhand seeks to provide comfort and confidence to travellers, enhancing their overall journey experience.

As the Uttarakhand Tourism Policy 2030 unfolds, the state is poised to witness a paradigm shift in its tourism sector. By embracing innovation, sustainability, and inclusivity, Uttarakhand is set to emerge as a game-changer in the Indian tourism landscape

Recognising the role of the private sector in tourism development, the policy encourages private sector investments in hospitality and tourism projects. The state government aims to reduce its role in areas where private sector participation is encouraged, while also facilitating ease of doing business through streamlined approval processes. This collaborative approach between the public and private sectors will foster accelerated growth and innovation in the tourism industry.

Moreover, the policy places great emphasis on high-value tourism, ensuring that Uttarakhand's growth is sustainable and minimally impacts its cultural and environmental treasures. By promoting inclusive strategies, the policy aims to distribute benefits to local communities and enhance the overall tourism experience.

To achieve balanced regional development, the policy introduces the Hub & Spoke model, focusing on resolving carrying capacity issues in popular tourist destinations. Basic amenities such as parking facilities, toilets, signages, ATMs, and healthcare services will be improved to enhance the overall tourist experience. The state government is committed to providing necessary infrastructure and connectivity, reducing travel time, and ensuring that tourism projects are resilient to natural disasters.

The Uttarakhand Tourism Policy 2030 sets ambitious targets to be achieved by the end of the decade. With a goal to contribute USD 10 billion annually to the state's economy and attract significant private-sector investment, Uttarakhand aims to create a sustainable tourism ecosystem. The policy also seeks to generate employment opportunities, with a focus on skill development and inclusivity. By extending the average length of stay and increasing foreign tourist visits, Uttarakhand aims to solidify its position as a premier tourist destination.

The vision of the policy is to establish tourist-friendly infrastructure, develop new destinations, and provide world-class experiences. By leveraging its rich cultural heritage, breathtaking landscapes, and commitment to sustainability, Uttarakhand aspires to become a beacon of responsible and transformative tourism.

"Uttarakhand is Devbhoomi. The manner, in which Uttarakhand is carrying forward the campaign of development, while keeping law and order paramount, is commendable. It is also important to preserve the identity of this Devbhoomi. And I believe that this Devbhoomi will become the center of attraction for the spiritual consciousness of the whole world in the near future. We have to develop Uttarakhand according to this potential as well."

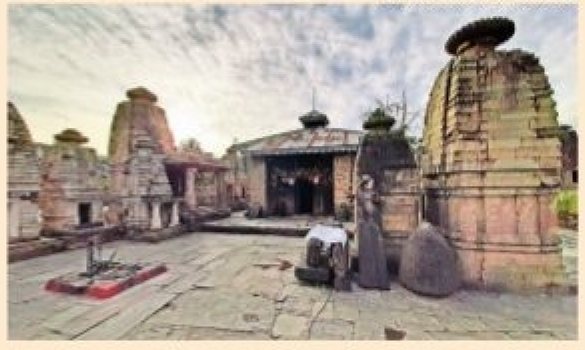
Prime Minister

MANASKHAND CIRCUIT:

THE MANASKHAND CIRCUIT IN UTTARAKHAND'S KUMAON REGION WILL FURTHER STRENGTHEN THE ECONOMY: PM NARENDRA MODI

PICS: ARUSHI CHAUHAN



Uttarakhand, the land of divine beauty and spiritual solace, has unveiled its latest gem for travellers seeking an immersive spiritual experience the Manaskhand Circuit. This newly introduced tourism circuit encompasses a collection of ancient and revered temples spread across various districts of the Kumaon region. Here, pilgrims can immerse themselves in the divine aura of temples such as Jageshwar Mahadev, Chitai Golu Devta Temple, Suryadev Temple Katarmal, Kasar Devi Temple, and Nanda Devi Temple. Each temple carries a distinct charm and architectural brilliance.

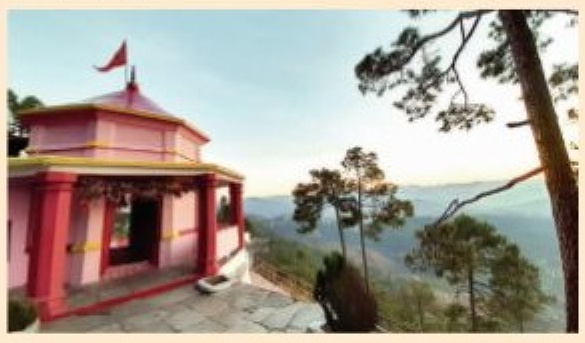
PITHORAGARH: Known for its picturesque landscapes, it is home to two sacred temples that form an integral part of the Manaskhand Circuit. The ancient Patal Bhuvaneshwar Temple and Haat Kalika Temple in Gangolihat are known for their spiritual significance and intricate carvings. These temples hold a mystical charm and offer a sense of tranquility amidst.

BAGESHWAR: The revered Bagnath Mahadev Temple and Baijnath Temple stand as timeless testaments to the devotion and architectural prowess of ancient times. These temples provide a serene ambiance for reflection and introspection.



CHAMPAWAT: The Patal Rudreshwar Gufa, also known as the Cave Temple, holds an air of mysticism, attracting devotees and adventure enthusiasts alike. Other prominent temples in the region include Purnagiri Temple and the Barahi Devi Temple in Devidhura. The Baleshwar Temple, dedicated to Lord Shiva, showcases exquisite stone carvings and is a visual delight for history and art enthusiasts.

NAINITAL: The Manaskhand Circuit also encompasses Nainital, a popular hill station known for its tranquil lakes and scenic vistas. The revered Naina Devi Temple, located on the banks of Naini Lake, holds immense religious significance. The Kainchi Dham Temple, nestled amidst lush greenery, provides a serene retreat for spiritual seekers.

UDHAM SINGH NAGAR: Udham Singh Nagar district adds to the spiritual tapestry of the Manaskhand Circuit with the Chaiti Bala Sundari Temple. This temple, dedicated to the Goddess Bala Sundari, showcases stunning architecture and offers devotees a spiritual haven.

The Manaskhand Circuit in Uttarakhand is a testament to the rich spiritual heritage and architectural brilliance that the state has to offer. As travellers embark on this spiritual journey, they will find solace and enlightenment in the divine atmosphere.

With the functioning of a double-engine government, several tourism schemes in Uttarakhand have provided self-employment to the local people and also made significant contributions to the state's economy

Homestays in Uttarakhand:

A gateway to authentic cultural experiences

PICS: DIPR, UTTARAKHAND

Uttarakhand, known as the 'Land of the Gods', not only boasts breathtaking natural beauty but also offers a unique opportunity for travellers to immerse themselves in the local culture and traditions through homestays. These homestays, facilitated by the Deendayal Upadhyaya Grah Awas Yojna, have not only provided self-employment to the local people but have also made significant contributions to the state's economy.

Under the Deendayal Upadhyaya Grah Awas Yojna, initiated by the Government of Uttarakhand, the concept of homestays has gained momentum. The scheme aims to uplift the economic condition of the local people by providing them with a sustainable source of income. It encourages residents to open their homes to domestic and foreign tourists, offering them an authentic and immersive experience of the state's cuisine, culture, historical heritage, and traditional Pahari lifestyle.

Currently, there are close to 5000 registered homestays listed with the Uttarakhand Tourism Department. These homestays range from cozy cottages nestled in the lap of the Himalayas to traditional houses adorned with intricate woodwork, showcasing the architectural marvels of the region. Each homestay offers visitors a warm and welcoming atmosphere, allowing them to become a part of the local community and forge meaningful connections.

The growth of homestays in Uttarakhand has had a significant impact on the state's economy. Not only do these accommodations provide a unique and personalised experience for travellers, but they also contribute to the local economy by generating employment opportunities and promoting local businesses. Homestay owners often collaborate with nearby artisans, farmers, and service providers, thus supporting the local supply chain and fostering sustainable development.

Moreover, homestays have played a vital role in curbing migration from the state. By offering viable income options, they have provided locals with a reason to stay and contribute to the growth and development of their communities. This has helped in preserving the state's cultural heritage and traditions, ensuring that future generations can continue to embrace their roots.

The popularity of homestays in Uttarakhand is a testament to the growing demand for authentic and immersive travel experiences. Travellers are seeking more than just comfortable accommodations; they yearn for a deeper connection with the destination and its people. Homestays fulfil this desire by offering a glimpse into the local way of life, allowing visitors to forge lasting memories and friendships.

PM NARENDRA MODI SAYS THAT VILLAGES ARE BECOMING CENTRES OF TOURISM, AND EVERY TOURIST DESTINATION CAN ALSO DEVELOP ITS OWN REVENUE MODEL. WE NEED TO SUPPORT BUSINESSES SUCH AS HOMESTAYS AND SMALL HOTELS, TO SUPPORT THE RURAL ECONOMY

Adventure Tourism in Uttarakhand: A thrilling paradise for adventure enthusiasts

With its diverse topography and awe-inspiring landscapes, Uttarakhand offers an array of exhilarating activities that cater to every adventure fanatic

Uttarakhand has emerged as a haven for adventure seekers from around the globe. With its diverse topography and awe-inspiring landscapes, the state offers an array of exhilarating activities that cater to every adrenaline fanatic's wildest dreams. From trekking and paragliding to white water rafting and skiing, Uttarakhand has it all. For trekking and hiking enthusiasts, Uttarakhand boasts an extensive network of trails that lead to mesmerising vistas and hidden gems. The famous Roopkund Trek takes adventurers through dense forests and picturesque meadows, while the Valley of Flowers Trek treats hikers to a vibrant display of colourful blooms. The awe-inspiring Kedarkantha Trek and the challenging Gaumukh-Tapovan Trek are also popular choices among adventure enthusiasts.

Rishikesh, known as the 'Yoga Capital of the World', has gained worldwide fame for its thrilling adventure activities. The mighty Ganges River flowing through Rishikesh offers opportunities for white water rafting and canoeing/ kayaking, allowing adventurers to navigate through its exhilarating rapids and bask in the natural beauty of the surroundings. Additionally, Rishikesh is a hub for other adventure sports like bungee jumping and ziplining, which offer heart-pounding experiences and breathtaking views of the Himalayan foothills.

Auli, situated in the Chamoli district, is a paradise for skiing enthusiasts. With its pristine slopes and powdery snow, Auli attracts skiers of all levels, from beginners to professionals. The annual National Winter Games are held here, showcasing the state's commitment to promoting winter sports and adventure tourism.

For those seeking an adrenaline rush amid nature, Uttarakhand's rivers offer an excellent opportunity for white water rafting. The Ganges, Tons, and Alaknanda rivers present thrilling rapids and breathtaking scenery, making rafting an unforgettable experience. The towns of Shivpuri, Devprayag, and Kaudiyala are popular starting points for these exciting river expeditions. In addition to these activities, Uttarakhand also offers paragliding experiences that allow adventurers to soar through the sky and witness the beauty of the Himalayas from a unique perspective. Destinations like Nainital, Mukteshwar, and Pithoragarh provide perfect launch sites for paragliding, where visitors can enjoy the thrill of flying.

Uttarakhand's adventure tourism industry has not only provided exhilarating experiences to travellers but has also contributed significantly to the state's economy. With the growth of adventure sports, local communities have benefited from increased employment opportunities and the establishment of adventure tourism infrastructure.

LANDMARK MOVIE

The upcoming film Oppenheimer is scheduled to release on July 21 in India. Sagar Puranik, the national award-winning director is greatly looking forward to the film's release. "I haven't yet met a person who is not a fan of Nolan. The amount of live-action he does in his films is incredible. He hardly ever relies on CGI. I love watching such films. I am sure Oppenheimer is going to be one of those landmark films that people keep talking about in the future," he says adding that The Dark Knight (2008) is his favourite Nolan film.

UNSPOKEN BONDS

Eminent nuclear physicists J Robert Oppenheimer and Homi J Bhabha shared a friendly relationship over the course of their lives. While author Bakhtiar Dadabhoy shares anecdotes of their relationship, national award-winning filmmaker Sagar Puranik comments on his excitement for the upcoming film Oppenheimer

TUNIR BISWAS

WITH Christopher Nolan's upcoming film, Oppenheimer has been making waves in the world of cinema, there has been an elevated interest in learning more about its titular character J Robert Oppenheimer. He is more widely known as the 'father of the atomic bomb', which one might assume is a title Oppenheimer would not be too fond of if they knew anything about him. After the first test of the bomb, its destruction left a disastrous impact on the eminent scientist to the point where he quoted the line 'Now I am become Death, the destroyer of worlds' from the Bhagavad Gita. Wars have led members of our species to create things they would come to regret in horror.

Outside of leading the Manhattan Project (that created the atomic bomb), not much is known about Oppenheimer in the present pop-cultural ethos. His life beyond World War II is largely left to only the ones curious enough to take a peek. One such veiled aspect of Oppenheimer's post-war life was his brief friendly relationship with eminent Bengalurean and nuclear physicist Homi J Bhabha.

"In all probability Bhabha met Oppenheimer after the war had ended and the two became good friends. This was hardly surprising since Oppenheimer like Bhabha was a highly cultured man. He had studied Sanskrit and was also conversant with Latin and Greek. He was interested in poetry and the fine arts. His father owned van Gogh paintings. Bhabha used to dine with Oppenheimer and his wife Katherine (Kitty) when he visited New York," shares Bakhtiar Dadabhoy, author of the 2023 biography Homi J. Bhabha: A Life.

In 1954, Oppenheimer fell from grace in the eyes of the United States of America when his security clearance was taken away after the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) alleged that he had ties to communism. Both his wife Katherine and brother Frank Oppenheimer (who was himself a well-respected physicist) were involved with/members of the American Communist Party. "When Oppenheimer lost his security clearance in 1954 it was presumably on Bhabha's intervention that he was invited by Nehru on more than one occasion to visit India, and even immigrate if he so wished. Oppenheimer declined because he felt that it would not be proper for him to leave the US until he had been cleared of all charges. He feared that permission would not only be refused but also that it would only increase suspicion about him," says Dadabhoy.

While the two did not often meet, the 'father of the atomic bomb' and the 'father of the Indian nuclear programme' publicly supported one another when necessary. "Bhabha in a meeting with then US Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, had told him that his impression of Russian science was quite favourable. Dulles said that this did not surprise him since he thought they were a 'materialist and godless civilisation' whereas they (the Americans) were 'religious and spiritual'. Bhabha must have at some time told this to Oppenheimer who narrated this in a press conference in Tokyo in September 1960. He said that as long as a leading politician, with the destiny of the world in his hands, could talk such blasphemous rubbish, 'we are not making good contact with politicians'," says Dadabhoy.

Reviving a forgotten story

TN Seetharam's first full-length play, inspired by the anti-emergency sentiments of the late '70s, is being staged in the city after a hiatus

I wrote during the anti-emergency movement. I was inspired by one of my experiences. I don't expect people to take away any message from it. Just have an entertaining time, supporting good theatre. – TN Seetharam

AS part of their year-long theatre festival, city-based theatre group Vedike Foundation is bringing to stage Aasphota, penned by acclaimed Kannada actor, screenwriter and director TN Seetharam. Drawing its inspiration from the anti-emergency sentiments of the '70s, Aasphota explores an idealist's disillusionment with politics. "The main reason we chose to bring this play back is because it is a forgotten gem," shares Ritwik Simha, director of Aasphota and co-founder of Vedike. "It's been nearly 35 years since this has been last produced on stage. So, two generations of Kannada theatre audiences have not seen this play," says Simha, who feels that the issues that the play highlights are experienced even today. "The fight for the environment, workers' rights and the impact of corrupt practices are still relevant," he adds.

The story is of a young idealistic man named Shiva Prasad, who becomes a union leader after witnessing first-hand corruption, ill-treatment and exploitation of a factory owner. Aasphota explores one-man's fight against a corrupt system. It explores Shiva Prasad's disillusionment when his mentor, a local union leader-turned-politician, becomes indifferent to issues of workers after gaining power. This pivotal moment marks the shattering of Shiva Prasad's idealistic views, his disillusionment, and anger emerges in him.

Given that the play was written during a different era in Indian history, Simha says the adaptation has been altered to make it more relevant to today's audiences.

"We have edited some of its dated portions. But the values, the fight for those values, about the environment, about rights and regulations, all those things that he talks about, stay as they are, and that immediately connects to everybody," he adds.

Among the play's highlights is an intricate party sequence that runs for approximately 30 minutes. This visually-captivating scene showcases the diverse characters and their exploitative nature, masked under a facade of compassion. "These portions made it very tough to direct. At the same time, because the play is talking about so many issues, if it's not presented in an energetic and entertaining way, it becomes very dry," Simha explains, adding Aasphota will be especially relevant to socially conscious younger audiences. "Anybody who has any kind of social consciousness will connect with the play. They will take away the values we discuss and the individual's fight for a better world. When we end the play, there is a lot of positivity and energy that anyone would carry with them," he concludes.

ISHA DIAGNOSTICS INSTALLS NEW MRI IN CITY

ISHA Diagnostics, a renowned medical facility, has recently introduced its Open MRI machine. For individuals in need of an MRI, ISHA Diagnostics, under the leadership of Dr. Balakrishna Shetty, Chief of Radiology has opened the latest Open MRI technology, providing accurate diagnoses and exceptional patient care.

Uniquness of Open MRI

Magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) is an advanced medical imaging technique that utilises a powerful magnetic field and computer technology to produce highly detailed images of the body's organs and tissues. Unlike traditional closed MRI machines, the Open MRI offers several significant advantages to patients.

In a conventional MRI, patients are required to enter a long tunnel-shaped chamber, which can often lead to discomfort and feelings of claustrophobia. Additionally, the enclosed space generates loud and unsettling noises during the procedure. Consequently, some patients may refuse or experience heightened anxiety when faced with the prospect of undergoing an MRI scan. In certain cases where an MRI is essential for an accurate diagnosis, patients have had to undergo the procedure under general anesthesia, resembling a major surgical intervention.

ISHA Diagnostics provides an alternative solution with the introduction of Open MRI. This advanced technology features a wide bore design, eliminating the need for a long tunnel and minimising the bombarding sounds associated with traditional MRI machines.

With Open MRI, patients can comfortably undergo their scans without the distressing confinement of a narrow tube-like structure. This innovation has been especially beneficial for individuals with larger body sizes or those who experience extreme claustrophobia.

By utilising Open MRI machines, the experienced Radiologists at ISHA Diagnostics can achieve enhanced accuracy in diagnosing and studying various medical conditions. They can effectively assess causes of back and neck pain, joint pains, diseases of the brain, as well as cancer-related diseases and their spread throughout the body. The Open MRI has proven to be a significant improvement in patient care, ensuring a more comfortable and stress-free experience during the imaging process.

You can contact ISHA Diagnostics at 311 Sampige Road, Malleshwaram, or reach them by phone at 2356 5006. To schedule an appointment or make inquiries, For any further info, Please contact: Sheela Rajendran 9972961271, Bhanumati 8880973330.

FIT BIT

WINGED DRAGON

This is a variation of Ashwa Sanchalanasana (Crescent Low Lunge Pose Variation Knees On Floor), which is a combination of a forward bend, a twist, along with hip opening. This was introduced in the genre of yin yoga, initially.

STEPS

- Start in Ashwa Sanchalanasana for 5-6 breaths.
- Extend your left leg with the foot curled and left knee on the mat. The right leg bend is with the right foot on the mat.
- Release the right hand and bring it to the inner part of the right foot in Anjaneyasana Hand In (Low Lunge Pose Hand In).
- Stretch the hamstring, bring elbows on the floor like Forearms On Floor Close Up bending with the torso, pushing the right hip outwards, flexing the right foot.
- For a deeper outward hips rotation, slowly shift the weight of legs from the foot to the outward corner of the foot.
- Slowly turn the foot to rest on the outward corner of the heels and the pinky toe.
- To warm-up, release stress on the hip socket, pulsating the right leg inwards and outwards like a dragon flapping its wings.
- After few pulsating moves, settle the right leg with the right thighs away from the hips, supporting the outer edges of the foot. Lean upper body on the forearm.
- Do the alignment with a breath, release, return to Ashwa Sanchalanasana.
- Stabilise, move to counter cool down Adho Mukha Svanasana.
- Repeat the steps with the right leg extended.
- Relax in Balasana.

LIMITATIONS

People with ankle, knees, shoulder, or wrists injuries, recovering from hip, spinal, or shoulder and knee surgery, and senior citizens, pregnant or postnatal women, have weak ankles, knees, wrists, hip joints, and carpal syndrome, vertigo, migraine, and balance issues, herniated disc and stenosis or any spinal complications, or trauma, avoid this pose.

BENEFITS

- Stretches quadriceps.
- Shoulders and the arms are fortified and the spine stays neutral.
- Stretches the inner thighs, adductors, and tones the genitals.
- Aids in creating spinal flexibility.
- Stabilises the hip joints and the tailbone.
- Supports pelvic joints and inner groin muscles.
- Aids agility, posture and hip opener.
- Creates flexibility to progress to Twisted Dragon.
- Relieves stress in the lower body.
- Enhances blood circulation.
- Helps in treating sciatica and piriformis syndrome.
- Activates parasympathetic nerves.

NO SWEAT

If you tend to perspire excessively, here's how to regain control over hyperhidrosis

DR AKANKSHA SINGH CORNUIT

HYPERHIDROSIS, or excessive sweating in the underarm area, can be an embarrassing and uncomfortable condition that affects individuals of all genders. Excessive sweat stains, unpleasant odours, and the constant need to change clothes can significantly impact one's confidence and quality of life. Fortunately, there are several effective treatment options available specifically designed to address armpit hyperhidrosis. Here, we will explore some of these treatments and help you regain control over your excessive sweating.

Prescription Strength Antiperspirants

In cases where over-the-counter antiperspirants do not provide sufficient relief, prescription strength antiperspirants may be necessary. These antiperspirants contain higher concentrations of active ingredients, such as aluminum chloride hexahydrate, and can be obtained through a healthcare professional.Prescription strength antiperspirants offer increased effectiveness in controlling excessive sweating and can be particularly beneficial for individuals with severe armpit hyperhidrosis.

Topical Antiperspirants

One of the simplest and most readily accessible treatment options for armpit hyperhidrosis is the use of topical antiperspirants. These products typically contain aluminum chloride, which helps block sweat glands and reduce excessive sweating. Look for antiperspirants specifically designed for armpit use and apply them to clean, dry skin. For optimal results, it is recommended to apply antiperspirants at night before bed.

Botox Injections

Botulinum toxin injections, commonly known as Botox injections, have proven to be an effective treatment option for armpit hyperhidrosis. The toxin works by blocking the chemical signals that stimulate sweat glands, thereby reducing sweating in the treated area. Botox injections for armpit hyperhidrosis are administered by a healthcare professional and provide relief that lasts for several months. Regular follow-up appointments may be necessary to maintain the results.

Iontophoresis

Iontophoresis is a non-invasive treatment that involves passing a mild electrical current through water or a wet pad applied to the underarms. This treatment is believed to temporarily block sweat glands and provide relief from excessive sweating. Iontophoresis can be done at home using specialised devices or administered in a medical setting. Consistency is key, as regular treatments over several weeks are typically required to achieve optimal results.

Laser Therapy

Laser therapy, such as laser ablation or laser lipolysis, has emerged as a promising treatment for armpit hyperhidrosis. These procedures target and destroy sweat glands in the underarm area, resulting in reduced sweat production. Laser therapy is minimally invasive, and recovery time is relatively quick. However, it is important to consult with a healthcare professional to determine if laser therapy is a suitable option for your specific case.

Surgical Options

For severe cases of armpit hyperhidrosis that do not respond to other treatments, surgical interventions may be considered. One such procedure is called axillary sweat gland suction curettage, which involves removing sweat glands from the underarm area. Another option is thoracic sympathectomy, which involves cutting or clamping the nerves responsible for sweat production. These surgical options should only be considered as a last resort, after exhausting all other treatment avenues, and after thorough consultation with a healthcare professional.

It is important to remember that the choice of treatment for armpit hyperhidrosis should be based on individual preferences, the severity of the condition, and the guidance of a healthcare professional. Each treatment option has its own advantages and considerations, and what works for one person may not work for another.

Excessive sweating in the armpits can be a frustrating and confidence-shattering experience. However, with the right treatment approach, it is possible to regain control over your excessive sweating and enjoy a more comfortable and confident life. Don't hesitate to seek help and explore the various treatment options available to find the one that suits you best.

SEEKING HEALTH IN SESAME SEEDS

ANGELINA ROSE J

VEGANISM is becoming a popular dietary trend, especially after the pandemic. If you look at a vegan's dietary charts, you can find traces of sesame seeds among other seed supplements in various food items as they contain rich amounts of protein. Dr PV Lakshmi, chief dietician, Gleneagles Global Health City, says, "A lot of people are becoming more conscious about their skin health and hair growth. Sesame seeds contain vitamin B which will help to maintain those facets of their daily life."

Advantages

Sesame seeds have a high calcium content which is excellent for bone health. Even if a person has 100 gm of sesame seeds, they provide 975 mg of calcium which even milk can't even offer.

These seeds have a large amount of fibre which regulates cholesterol levels and protects the heart. They have high insoluble fibre content which prevents constipation.

Sesame seeds also contain healthy fats – polyunsaturated fats (41%) and monounsaturated fats (39%) which helps in the circulation of blood.

They have other and minerals such as iron, magnesium, and zinc that prevent inflammation, build immunity, and aid in blood cell formation.

They are also a good source for rejuvenating the skin as they have high contents of collagen which is produced by zinc that helps in repairing damaged tissues.

How to include in your diet

- Can be used to make sesame balls which are good for diabetics.
- Could be eaten by roasting the seeds.
- Can be blended and made into a powder as a side dish for breakfast with idli and dosae.
- Could be included as a garnish in a vegetable dish.
- Could be used in soups.
- Could be used to make granola bars and rolls.

According to Dr Lakshmi, consuming too much of sesame seeds can do more harm than good. They should be taken cautiously as they contain oxalic and phytic acids which decrease the absorption levels of calcium, iron, zinc, and magnesium. If a person wants to be aware of whether they are allergic to sesame seeds, they could consult a nutritionist or dietician before including them in their diet.

Nandakishore's Vrushabha boasts a stellar cast in a multilingual extravaganza

CE FEATURES

NANDA Kishore, the director of Ranna and Mukunda Murari, is all set to embark on his next ambitious project. The latest development indicates that the film is turning out to be a star-studded entertainer. With megastar Mohanlal leading the cast in the highly anticipated film, the project is produced by Ekta Kapoor of Balaji Telefilms, in collaboration with Connekkt Media and AVS Studios.

Vrushabha is synonymous with Shiva or Nandi and the film is expected to be an emotional drama that revolves around the intricacies of a father-son relationship. The film also delves into the eternal clash between two profound emotions that shape our world: Love and Revenge. It is said to have a liberal dose of action and visual effects to captivate audiences of all generations.

Joining Mohanlal in Vrushabha's lead cast is Telugu actor Roshan Meka. Additionally, the film will feature Shanaya Kapoor, the daughter of Sanjay Kapoor. The upcoming female talent will be marking her debut in Karan Johar next. The ensemble cast also includes KGF-fame Garuda Ram and actor Ravishankar.

Interestingly, Vrushabha has music by Devi Sri Prasad and cinematography by Santhosh Thundyil of Krissh and Kuch Kuch Hota Hai fame. The art direction of the film is done by Mohan B Kere, and KM Prakash is the editor.

Nandakishore, in a previous interview with CE, expressed his excitement about working on Vrushabha for the past five years. He considers it a dream come true to collaborate with the esteemed Mohanlal and the rest of the talented cast.

As the team enters the final stage of preparation, this big-budget multistarrer is expected to get more actors to its ensemble. The director plans to commence shooting by the end of this month.

PUNEETH RAJKMAR'S FINAL TRACK, 'YOU ARE MY KAREENA' ADDS UNIQUE CHARM TO APAROOPA : DIRECTOR MAHESH BABU

The film starring newcomers Sughosh and Hritika is all set to hit the screens on July 14

A SHARADHAA

DIRECTOR Mahesh Babu Sarathy, who has a penchant for love stories and casting fresh talents, is gearing up for the release of his latest film, Aparoopa. The film is scheduled to hit theaters on July 14 across Karnataka.

The soundtrack was launched on Tuesday, and a particular song has grabbed everyone's attention. The song is sung by Puneeth Rajkumar, which adds a distinct charm to the film. Titled 'You are my Kareena' this Tapanguchi track marks Puneeth Rajkumar's final song. WIth music by Prajwal Pai, the film is written by V Nagendra Prasad, and is also sung by Sangeetha Ravindranath.

Billing Aparoopa as a contemporary love story, the director shares that the unique narrative posed several challenges in the making. Sughosh, hailing from Mandya and previously seen in the director's film Atiratha, plays the lead in the film, which also stars Hrithika, the niece of noted actor Amani, who is making her debut in Kannada.

The film's ensemble cast comprises Ashok, Aruna Balaraj, Avinash, Kuriprathap, Dinesh Mangaluru, Vijay Chendur, Kaddipudi Chandru, and Mohan Juneja. Aparoopa has been shot by cinematographer Suryakanth in places like Bengaluru, Mysuru, Chikkamagaluru, and Kashmir.

'Hejjaru is the first parallel cinema in Kannada to blend mystery and entertainment'

CE FEATURES

THE shooting of Hejjaru, which is claimed to be the first-ever parallel cinema in Kannada, has been completed and the first look motion poster was unveiled on Wednesday.

The film is directed by debutant Harshapriya and he shares that it combines various experimental elements but delivers pure entertainment. Starring Bhagat Alva and Leonilla Shweta D'Souza in the lead roles, Hejjaru explores the concept of 'Parallel Life,' where similar incidents occur in the lives of two different people in two different timelines.

According to the director, the film revolves around two individuals. Rajaram, born in 1965, experiences a loss and embarks on a solitary quest to find those responsible. Bhagat, born in 2020, faces similar events and believes that following Rajaram will lead him to the person he seeks. However, as their lives unfold, inexplicable developments complicate Rajaram's quest. Will Rajaram ultimately find the answers he seeks? Or will the answer he discovers become the true question? Hejjaru presents this intriguing dualism, urging viewers to unravel the mystery," the director explains in brief about the concept.

Produced by Ramji Talkies and Gagan Enterprises, Hejjaru has music by Poornachandra Tejaswi and cinematography by Amar Chayagrahana. In addition to the lead cast, the film also stars Gopal Deshpande, Naveen Krishna, Muni, and Arun Balaraj. Hejjaru is currently in post-production and is scheduled to release in September.

Prajwal Devaraj's Gana is a time-defying film

CE FEATURES

THE makers of Gana unveiled the teaser at an event held recently. The film marks the Kannada debut of writer and director, Hariprasad Jakka, a physics teacher-turned-filmmaker, who was previously associated with films like 1: Nenokkadine and 100% Love.

"The film is set against the backdrop of 1993, and 2022. In fact, Gana can be considered a film that fights against time," explains the director. Gana, produced by Parthu under the Cherry Creations banner, marks the return of multilingual actor Vedhika to Kannada cinema, and stars Yasha Shivakumar as one of the female leads.

The cast also includes Krishi Tapanda, Shivaraj K.R. Pete, and Master Raghunandan.

With music composed by Anoop Seelin, and cinematography by Jai Anand, Gana is now in post-production, and the makers are planning to announce the release date soon.

Shooting of Evidence wrapped up

A still from the film

CE FEATURES

EVIDENCE, a film filled with elements of crime, suspense, and thriller, marks the debut of writer and director Praveen Ramakrishna. With the shooting wrapped up, the makers released the first look stills.

The team is now gearing up for the film's promotions, starting with the release of a teaser, which will be out later this month. The film stars Robo Ganeshan and Manasa Joshi (known for her role in Kiragurina Gayaligalu), and also features Adithya, Rachita, Poojitha Bobe Goud, Chamak Chandra, Pawan Suresh, Shashidhara Kote, Karthik Varnekar, Manmohan Rai, Renu Shikari, and Aaradhya Shivakumar in pivotal roles.

With background score by CJ, the film has four songs composed by Aron Karthik Venkatesh, and written by Nagendra Prasad, Praveen Ramakrishna, and Kartik.

Ravi Suvarna has handled the cinematography for Evidence, which is backed by Aravind Achu. The makers are looking for an August release.
